Here and There Around The Sandy Area

Bill Lawson is now employed at the Big Eight sawmill, Aims.

Miss Ruth Baumbach made the trip from Harrisburg to be home for Mother's Day last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Merritt, Bull Run, went to Eastern Oregon over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Kealther and Charlie Larsen went to Long Beach, Washington over the week-end for clams.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zeller of Albany are visiting their son, Nelson Zeller and his family at Bull Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Domaschofsky and daughter of Portland were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. William Seidel, Bull Run.

The Aims Community club met with Mrs. Joe Sipetch last week. Quite a number turned out considering the condition of the roads.

Mrs. Betty McDonald, Aims, spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. Claude Bair and family.

Miss Audrey Skeslien has accepted a position in the office of Dr. William M. Grashorn, dentist in the Koch building, Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacDonald left here Wednesday after a two week's visit with their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Art Bellingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Voight and sons, Danny and Wally of Dallas spent Sunday with Mr. Voight's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Voight, Kelso.

Mrs. Glen Miller, Bull Run, spent a week in Bremerton, Washington, recently, visiting her father and two sisters and their families. She says it rains up there too.

M. G. Scott shipped out Tuesday from Seattle on the U.S.S. Iowa for a cruise down the coast to San Diego. He will fly back to Portland via Navy Air Transport Service.

Roy Hickey says that the sample parking meter installed in front of his home last week by a person or persons unknown did pretty well; the city's treasury is 11 cents richer.

Harry Reed is looking for the wag who put a "fresh fish for sale" sign on his barber shop window early Tuesday morning. Seems Harry went fishing Monday — no fish.

Mrs. Frank J. Hendee who has been a house guest at the home of her daughter and son-in-law the Philip Jonsruds, left Wednesday for her home in Burlington, Vermont. She will visit relatives in San Francisco enroute.

Recent visitors at the D. V. Lauzon home were Mr. and Mrs. Olney Grow of Chicago. Mrs. Grow, a sister of Mrs. Lauzon, is better known to her friends here at the former Miss Magda Jensen. The Grow's are touring and are now in California.

The Home Ec club of the Sandy Grange met at the Cherryville home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mount Tuesday. The ladies worked on items for their fall bazaar and enjoyed a pot luck lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boyson, their two children and Frank Schram, Mrs. Boyson's father, left for Chicago, their former home, last week. The Boysons and Mr. Schram have been living in Sandy 15 months.

Mrs. Harvey J. Kubitz and Mrs. Carl Newman returned to Sandy Wednesday after attending a three-day convention of the Immanuel Lutheran Women's League in Spokane. One hundred and ten delegates attended the convention representing cities and towns of Oregon and Washington.

Mrs. Robert Jonsrud entertained relatives at a dinner party on Tuesday evening, May 4. The occasion was Mr. Jonsrud's birthday. Present were Mrs. Frank J. Hendee, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lindell, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Jonsrud with small daughter, Judy and Alice Draper of Portland.

Charles Lane was kidnapped Thursday. He was snatched by his students, seniors at Sandy grade school. The seniors pulled a sneak day and went skating at Gresham's roller rink. They borrowed one of the school's busses. That's probably why Charlie went — the kids needed a driver. It may even have been his own idea.

The local Bull Run Community Club's final card party of the season was held at the club hall Saturday night. Acting as hostesses were Mrs. V. Dell Butler and Mrs. Tom Paul. Prizes for pinochle were: first, Mrs. Herman McIntyre and Dell Jadwin; second, Mrs. Kenneth Frederickson and Alvin Klinger. Prizes for 500 were: first, Mrs. R. J. Arnett and E. J. Voight; second, Mrs. Bertha Gunderson and Henry Helms. The door prize was won by Mrs. Glen Miller.
