From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh.

It's Leap Year, Girls!

First girl in our town to "get her man" on Leap Year was the Cuppers' daughter, Jane, who wed Bill Webster's boy last Saturday.

When I asked Bill Jr. if it was true that Jane really did the proposing, Bill said: No, but she made it plain she'd make an ideal wife. Instead of looking for diversion or excitement every evening, she was content to chat beside the fire.

"I could plainly see," says Bill, "that we'd really have a happy home life—which is just exactly what I want from marriage."

I know it's usual for older folks to shake their heads over the younger generation. (It's gone on for hundreds of years, now.)

But from where I sit, young people of marrying age today are every bit as commendable as their elders were—in their temperance (a glass of beer for instance), tolerance, and common sense. So to Jane and Bill—the best of luck!

Strawberry Plants Blossom Heavily

"The best first blossoming that I've seen in a long time," is the opinion of Tom Cowing, of Base Line and Hall roads, regarding this patch of strawberries. Mr. Cowing reports little damage from the recent frost which had alarmed berry growers, and believes that this year's crop will be fairly good. If weather is favorable, he reports, picking should start in about 2 weeks, just about a month behind average years.

Damascus Grange Names Secretary

DAMASCUS — Mrs. Stanley Kienlen resigned from the office of secretary of Damascus Grange last Saturday, the resignation to become effective June 12.

Mrs. Stella Lingle was elected to the office of secretary by unanimous vote.

Those filling officers chairs in the absence of regular officers were Dolores Mayer, lady assistant steward, Margaret Robertson, Flora, and Lenna Trowbridge, Ceres.

A vote of thanks was given to the young people for their work of serving for the Mothers Day meeting.

An invitation to the Grange to attend the wedding of Miss Dolores Mayer at Centenary Wilbur Methodist church on Saturday, June 26, was extended by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayer.

Chaplain Margaret Gray announced church Sunday to be on Fathers day, June 20. Members will attend Damascus church and later will gather at the Grange hall for pot-luck dinner.

After the meeting motion pictures were shown by Dock Hunt and Ivan Robertson.

The largest primary vote in the history of the Damascus polls was cast last Friday. The counting board was busy until 5:30 a. m. Saturday.

Those working on the precinct board were, Mrs. Edna Young, chairman; Mrs. Mary Hill, judge; Mrs. Mildred Johnson, 1st clerk, Mrs. H. A. Walter, 2nd clerk and Mrs. Bernice Kitting, 3rd clerk.

Deschutes Lures Mabery Anglers

MABERY — E. E. Hutchison and son James, Mabery, and Kenneth and Harvey Shannon, Gresham, and H. V. Fair spent several days last week fishing in the Deschutes river country. They report the fish "were biting good."

Mr. and Mrs. James Hutchison are spending the summer with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hutchison.

"Jimmy" has been attending the Bethesda Bible Institute in Portland for the past year. The young couple plan to be missionaries.

Recent visitors at the Hutchison home were Mrs. W. H. Boatright, of Portland and Mrs. Ray Sandwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Mickelson spent a day last week at Vancouver, Washington, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Sarff and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peery.

Rev. W. E. Ellis of Pleasant Home, formerly pastor of the Cottrell community church, who has been seriously ill at the veterans hospital in Portland for the past 8 weeks, is at home again. He is able to receive visitors now.
