Wed With Double Ring Service

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krieger

Now at home on the Langensand road, Sandy, are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Krieger (Elsie Frenz) who were married the evening of May 22 in Immanuel Lutheran church. Rev. N. E. Dey read the double ring service in the presence of 135 guests. The church was decorated with bridal wreath and pink snapdragons.
Miss Dyanne Kahny, Gresham, was the organist. Ted Schoen, Gresham, sang.

Given in marriage by her father, Arthur Frenz, the bride wore a gown of flowered white chiffon. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a beaded coronet.
The nosegay she carried was of white carnations centered around an orchid.

Mrs. Floyd Wagner, Gresham, was matron of honor in a pink marquise gown. Her nosegay was of yellow carnations and pink sweet peas.

Sister Is Bridesmaid Miss Dorothy Frenz, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. Her gown was of blue marquisette and she carried a pink carnation nosegay.

The flower girls were Karen Keisecker, niece of the groom, and Twila Mae Krebs. Karen's gown was of blue dotted swiss and Twila's was pink and of the same material. They carried nose-gays which matched the bride-maids'.

William Krieger, Estacada, brother of the groom, was best man. Elmer Frenz, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Huck were ushers.

Reception Follows
A reception was held in the Sandy Woman's club hall following the ceremony. Miss Alma Netzel, Portland, and Mrs. Herman Netzel, Portland, aunts of the bride, poured. They were assisted by Mrs. Herbert Huck, Miss Lydia Krieger, Portland, sister of the groom; Mrs. A. E.
Meyer, Portland; Mrs. Ronald Krebs and Mrs. Melvina Koehler.
Mrs. Meyer decorated the church and the club hall.

Out of Town Guests
Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Henry Keisecker, sister of the groom, and children of Grants Pass, Leonard Frenz, Harold Frenz and Raymond Frenz, all of Spokane, Washington.

For traveling Mrs. Krieger wore a black and white striped suit with white accessories. They spent the week-end at Multnomah Falls.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Frenz, Rt.
3, Boring. She graduated from Sandy high school in 1943. She has been employed as a stenographer in Portland since then.
Mr. Krieger is the son of Mr.
John Krieger, rt. 1, Sandy. He is employed by the state highway department.

WELCHES — The Mt. Hood
Golf and Country club, Welches, expects a crowd of about 200 this Saturday for a golf tournament

The Welches school picnic at success, according to all reports.

The weather was ideal, the children wore sunsuits and Tony

Francisco. Mrs. Welch flew down scenic coastal highway. Mrs.

Welch thought a world traveler, is always glad to return to the evergreen of Oregon and her mountain home.

Mrs. Robert Pearson was a week-end guest of her grandmother, Mrs. Jennie Welch.
