Frances Bruce, James Dixon Take Wedding Vows in Montavilla May 17

The Montavilla Seventh Day Adventist church in Portland was decorated with baskets of pink azaleas and Japanese snowballs Saturday evening, May 17, for the wedding of Miss Frances Jane Bruce, Sandy, and James K. Dixon, Sandy.

Elder Van C. Blair read the services in the presence of 300 guests. Mrs. George Ries was the pianist. Vocalists were Katherine Krout, Eldon Walters and Mrs. Van O. Blair. They sang "I Love You Truly," "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Clair S. Bruce, Sandy, wore a gown of ivory satin with sweetheart neckline. Her full length veil was held in place by a pearl crown headpiece.

She carried gardenias on a white Bible, with white sweetpeas on the streamers.

Miss Effie Bruce, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Barbara Hough, Vancouver, Wash., Miss Ruth McKinney, Taft and Miss Virginia Proctor, College Place, Wash., were bridesmaids.

Kennie Wilkes, White Salmon, Wash., was the Bible boy. The flower girl was Patsy Staggs, Boring. Miss Rosemary Dixon, Castle Rock, Wash., sister of the groom, and Miss Victoria Johnston were candle lighters.

Bob Dixon, Castle Rock, Wash., was best man for his brother.

Ralph L. Swan, Leland Quinn, Bend; Fred Perry, Bend, and Don Van Tassel, Walla Walla, Wash., were ushers.

A reception was held at the Portland home of Dr. and Mrs. C. Don Platner following the ceremony.

Miss Dixon and Miss Johnston cut the cake assisted by the bridesmaids and maid of honor.

Many out of town guests were present, including members of the faculty of the Columbia Academy, Battle Ground, Wash.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon left for a wedding trip to Bend and the Metolius river. For traveling they wore suits tailored of the same material. They are at home now on the Bluff road where they are renting the Priebe residence until August, when they will both go to College Place, Wash., to attend college.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Sharp Bruce, Rt. 1, Sandy.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dixon, Castle Rock, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartsch Anniversary Honored

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bartsch were guests of honor at a party given in their honor in celebration of their fortieth wedding anniversary June 3. Mr. and Mrs. Bartsch are the parents of Mrs. Clarence Bennett, Sandy.

Mrs. Bartsch wore the wedding dress she was married in. Although 40 years old, the "Gibson Girl" gown of cream silk is now fashionable.

The color scheme of the party was carried out in ruby. There were 37 relatives and friends present. Mrs. Bennett and her sister, Mrs. Herman Rieder, Pleasant Home, were hostesses.

Sandy Ridge Club Plans for Dinner, Strawberry Fete

Plans for participating in The Sandy Post's subscription drive were made last Thursday by members of the Sandy Ridge Woman's club at a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Ronald Krebs.

The club also made plans for the R. E. A. state directors' dinner to be held during the noon hour June 15, at the Masonic hall. The public is invited to attend.

Strawberry Festival Planned

The annual strawberry festival for club members and their husbands will be held the latter part of June. The date for the club's yearly picnic has been set for August 8 at Hidden Valley park.

A letter was read from the French orphan adopted by the club. She expressed gratitude for all the food and clothing sent her by the group. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Krebs and Mrs. E. J. Fuerstenau.

Evelyn Beaty Is Shower Honoree

COTTRELL—A bridal shower honoring Evelyn Beaty of Mabery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Beaty, was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bill Breen. About 36 women were present.

Miss Beaty is the bride-elect of Donald Conrad, of Eugene. Mrs. Fern Pratt did the floral decorations of the two living rooms.

Assisting Mrs. Breen with refreshments were Mrs. A. Sandblast, Mrs. Harold Lundy, Mrs. Markvardsen and Mrs. H. H. Watkins. The young couple plan a June wedding.

Portland PEO Chapter Entertained at Rhody

RHODODENDRON—Mrs. W. K. Blount entertained the members of P. E. O. chapter W of Portland at a pot luck luncheon at her Rhododendron home recently.

Present were Mrs. Eva E. Cunningham, Mrs. Lillian Dixon, Mrs. A. T. Erickson, Mrs. Jean S. Ferguson, Mrs. George B. Faris, Mrs. A. L. Howarth, Mrs. Fred Jewett, Mrs. William Moss, Mrs. Paul J. Matejka.

Mrs. Linden McCollough, Mrs. Fred Packwood, Mrs. Irving Rand, Mrs. W. L. Rueppell, Mrs. F. T. Stone, Mrs. F. C. Taft, Mrs. E. S. Van Slyke and Mrs. Emily J. Wells.

Charles Butler Brings His War-Time Nurse Home to Bull Run as His Bride

BULL RUN—Charles H. Butler, who married his wartime English nurse in England a month ago, brought his bride home to meet the family Sunday when they were guests of honor at a family party at the Bull Run home of Mr. and Mrs. V. Dell Butler, Charles' parents.

Charles first met his bride, the former Veronica Dorain of Fulwell, Sunderland, England, in 1943, when he was a U. S. Army lieutenant stationed in England, and she was his nurse in an army hospital. Until last month they had not seen each other since 1945. They had been writing to one another since.

Rainbow Girls Attend Assembly

The Sandy chapter of Rainbow girls was formally introduced to the Oregon Order of Rainbow girls Grand Assembly at John Day, May 28 as a new assembly. Organized last September, the local group was represented for the first time at a state convention, by 13 members and officers of the Sandy chapter.

While in John Day the girls attended installation ceremonies May 28, initiation May 29 and a formal ball the same evening. On the afternoon of May 29 business men of John Day and of neighboring Canyon City were hosts at a barbecue and rodeo honoring the convention.

The Sandy girls were guests at the homes of various John Day Rainbow girls and members of the Eastern Star during their stay.

Those attending from Sandy were Virginia Bartholomew, Pat Murray, Dorothy Lund, Lenore Lund, Blanche Packard, Pat Gomoll, Shirley Schultz, Amelia Raysick, Clara Leum, Anna Huhman and Doris Wilcox. The girls were accompanied by their mother-advisor, Mrs. Ruth Leum.

The local Rainbow chapter will recess until next September when regular meetings will be resumed. In the meantime the girls plan to do welfare work and will meet once a month to discuss plans.

Kelso Friends Told Of Melba Jonsrud's Wedding Plans

Friends are receiving invitations for the wedding of Melba Jonsrud to Jack Thurman Stiles of Portland. Miss Jonsrud is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jonsrud, formerly of Kelso.

The wedding will take place the afternoon of June 20 at Trinity Lutheran church in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonsrud operated a general merchandise store at Kelso for many years before moving to Portland two years ago. Miss Jonsrud was born and grew up in the Kelso community and is a graduate of Sandy high school.

Mrs. O. Williams Feted At Cherryville Party

CHERRYVILLE—Friends and neighbors honored Mrs. Oscar Williams of Cherryville last Sunday with a birthday dinner.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Wilma Ball, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hudlin, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lowe and sons of Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. Frank Juarez and children of Sacramento, California.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Williams have been ill for some weeks and their friends wished them a speedy recovery.

Sandy Library Given New Look for Spring

New fluorescent lights were installed in the Sandy public library this week. One-third of the cost of these fixtures will be paid by the Sandy Woman's club. Two new book shelves have been installed, the ceiling has been painted and plans are being made to paint the walls as soon as the weather permits, according to Mrs. Lois Shearman, librarian.
