

FOR REAL QUALITY...
STICK TO JOHN DEERE!

Quality manufacturing is the by-word of every John Deere factory. Beginning with incoming shipments of only the highest-grade materials, each manufactured part... every finished implement is inspected thoroughly by skilled workmen to assure its meeting exact John Deere quality standards. That's why farmers everywhere are loud in their praise for the dependability... the quality construction of John Deere Farm Equipment. See us for information.

Marmot Students Are Home From Oregon State

MARMOT — Marmot students attending Oregon State college who are home for the summer include Richard, Roswell and George Ten Eyck.

Richard, a junior in food technology, is home, accompanied by his wife and two children. Roswell, a junior in logging engineering, will be an assistant engineer with Weyerhaeuser at Molalla this summer.

George, Jr., a sophomore in education, will do logging on his home place. Tom Van Deuten of Hood River also will spend the summer logging on the George Ten Eyck farm.

Dr. Joseph Miller of Portland has bought part of the old Aschoff place at Marmot. Dr. Robert Wise of Portland Veterans' hospital has 22 acres which he is grooming for a summer home and a place to retire to later. C. Myers of Portland has an acre which he and his family visit each weekend. They have two cabins erected and a garden in.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schreiber of Portland spent last Sunday at the G. A. Ten Eyck ranch. Mr. Schreiber is a teacher at Benson Polytechnic.

Scenery Outstanding

Despite rough roads there is considerable traffic in the Marmot country to see the outstanding scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilbert have a good strawberry patch this year and report that the Marmot country is proving good for berries. Hans Rathun has set out several acres on the place he purchased recently from Mrs. C. Allen.

William Winters has purchased the old Leaf farm from Roy Boppre.

Cool Summer Spots
Recalling pre-historic days of volcanic fury in central Oregon, where fire mountains of great height dominated the landscape, extensive lava caves, some with ice columns which never melt, are among Oregon's unusual scenic attractions, the Oregon state highway commission travel information department reports.
