Christina Rannow, Howard Vaeretti Married at Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Christina Ramona Rannow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Rannow of Mabery, and Howard J. Vaeretti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vaeretti of Sandy, exchanged their wedding vows in candlelight Mount Taber Presbyterian church, Portland, last Saturday evening. Dr. L. K. Grimes read the service.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a satin gown of period design, with drop shoulders and a sheer neckline. Her veil was held in place by a halo of orange blossoms. The bridal bouquet was made of white flowers with a white orchid in the center.

Bridesmaids in Marquisette
 The maid of honor, Miss Joan Schmalz, and bridesmaids, Marian Vaeretti, Lois Himmelsbach, Joanne Loper, and Suzanne Michel, wore marquisette dresses of lavender and green and carried bouquets of roses. Flower-girl Linda Lauderback was dressed in peach marquisette and carried a basket of blue and white flowers.

Wayne Marble was best man, and ushers were Charles Crone, Bill Rannow, Ralph Brown, Dean Schneider, and Robert Marsh.

Approximately 350 guests later attended a reception in the church parlors where Mrs. Theodore Mudrow and Mrs. T. C. Darnell poured, assisted by Mrs. Floyd Light, Mrs. Walter E. Koch Sr., and Misses Cora Ten Eyck, Frances Robson, Bernice Johnson, Beverly Ure, Mary Ellen Holm, Doris Lankins, Dorothy Sutton, Lural Mason and Velma Harms. Out of town guests were Emma Hein and Mr. and Mrs. R. Rexford of Los Angeles.

Salt and pepper sharkskin tuxedo, with red and black accessories and white orchid corsage was the going-away costume chosen by the bride. The couple are traveling in Canada on their wedding trip and will be at home near Dodge Park on the Sandy river after July 10.

C. A. Norquists and Korsunds Honored By Church Friends

POWELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Norquist, Bull Run, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Korsund, Gresham, were honored in observance of their 40th wedding anniversary at a program and social given last Friday evening at Powell Valley Mission Covenant church. For the "ruby" anniversary a color scheme of deep red and white was carried out in red roses and white candles, with a large cake for each couple.

The program consisted of brief talks by Rev. O. Wilner, Rex Raynor, Ray Wion and Rev. E. O. Solle, who was master of ceremonies. The Thoren quartet and Lois Solle sang. A gift of money was presented to each of the honored couples.

Russell and Quentin Norquist, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Norquist, were present, as was Ivan Korsund, son of the Korsunds. Clayton Norquist of Pacific Grove, California, and Mrs. Alice Korsund Kincaid, of Benicia, California, were not able to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Korsund were married in Helena, Montana, and have lived in the Gresham area for about 27 years. Mr. Korsund is with the Portland Wire and Iron Works.

Mr. and Mrs. Norquist were married in Minneapolis, Minnesota, and moved to Bull Run 25 years ago, where Mr. Norquist is electrical operator for the Portland General Electric company. Both couples are members of the Powell Valley church.

Miss Pearl Modin Of Boring Weds Verne Frambers

The Haley Baptist church was decorated with an arch of roses and honeysuckle for the wedding on Sunday, June 20, of Miss Pearl Modin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Modin, Boring, to Verne T. Frambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Frambers, of Wellington, Kansas. The ceremony was read by Rev. Horace H. Moore.

The bride wore a blue afternoon dress and carried a bouquet of pink and white peonies with satin streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Everett Batee, sister of the groom, who wore a light green dress with a corsage of yellow iris and pink rosebuds. Flower girls were Mary Margret and Marian Helen Batee, twin nieces of the groom, who wore white dresses with pink trim and carried baskets of pink rosebuds. Bridesmaids were Misses Luella Modin, sister of the bride, dressed in yellow, and Jean Christianson, cousin of the bride, who wore an aqua dress. Both wore corsages of purple irises and pink rosebuds.

Best man was Everett Batee, and ushers were Jack Batee, and Bob Funkner.

Dolores Mayer Weds Californian Saturday Night

DAMASCUS — Dolores Louise Mayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mayer, Damascus, was united in marriage to Richard Drumright, son of Sam Drumright, of Aguara, California Saturday evening June 26 in a candlelight, double-ring ceremony at Centenary Wilbur Methodist church in Portland.

The bride wore a long white satin wedding gown with a fingertip veil and carried a white Bible and rose buds.

The bride's attendants were Miss Lorraine Miller and Mrs. Bernice Sahli, the bride's sister. Miss Nellie Mae Smith sang.

Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Arthur Heacock, who cut the cake, Mrs. Kathleen Norgard and Mrs. Opal Lake poured and served the punch.

The candle-lighters were Mrs. Vera Miller and Miss Shirley Birkholder.

The couple left for California at noon Sunday. They will make their home there.

Newly Wed Coupe To Live in Sandy

Miss Carmelita Ellen Gillham and John Robert Karlen, Jr., were married in a double ring ceremony June 26 in Gresham.

Mrs. Karlen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Gillham and Mr. Karlen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Karlen, Sr. Both families are of Boring.

Bethel Baptist church, decorated with roses, foxgloves, delphiniums, was the scene of the ceremony performed by Rev. John Magoon. The bride was given in marriage by her father, she wore a white lace dress with a fingertip veil and carried a nosegay of pale pink roses. Her maid of honor, Kathleen Ruth Gillham, and her bridesmaids, Eunice Hall and Dorothy Faye Searls, wore gowns of pink and blue and carried bouquets of roses and delphiniums.

Fred Karlen, Jr., was best man, and ushers were Ray Searls and Adolph Amstad Jr.

A reception was held in the East Milwaukie Community Club house with Mrs. Edna Amstad, Mrs. Marjorie Feusi, Mrs. Emil Karlen, Mrs. Fred Karlen, and Miss Mary Ellen Nydegger assisting.

The couple left for a trip to Wyoming through Yellowstone National Park. The bride wore a gray suit with white accessories and a gardenia. They will live in Sandy on their return about July 11.

Baptist Chapel Installs New Knotty Pine Pews

Brand new knotty pine pews have just been completed and installed in the Sandy Baptist Chapel by the congregation, Rev. E. L. Rodda reports.

Since May 2 the interior of the chapel has been finished, new lights have been installed and new knotty pine wainscoting and harmonizing pews have given a finishing touch to the church.

TRULLINGER WINS DEGREE
 OREGON CITY — Dr. and Mrs. Dan P. Trullinger have returned to Oregon City where he is Clackamas county health officer.

Dr. Trullinger was granted a master's degree in public health by the University of Minnesota this month. He had been on leave of absence since Dec. 1. Dr. and Mrs. Trullinger were married while he was in Minnesota.
