

Positive Exactness!

Consummate skill and precision are a constant challenge to our registered pharmacists. That they meet that challenge with utmost reliability is evidenced by the community's faith in their ability. Consult your Doctor for medical advice... rely on us to compound his prescriptions with promptness and accuracy.

You'll realize Greater Savings ON DRUG NEEDS!

MISCELLANEOUS VALUES

Fungi-Rex Combination	1.49
For treatment of athlete's foot discomfort.
First Aid Kit	1.50
Just the thing for your vacation trip.
Electric Fan	11.95
Keep cool and comfortable.
Bath Brushes	2.75
Kellogg Nylon brushes... a brush for every purpose.

CAMERAS

Anso Panda Camera	4.89
12 pictures beautiful and clear.
Eveready Camera Case	1.00
Anso Panda. Keep your camera ready and protected.
Kodak Verichrome film, 120 size	.32
It's fun to take pictures when you use Kodak film.
Developing	roll .40
Beautiful enlargements and photo finishing.

Fountain Specials

Black and White Sundae	.25
Made with delicious ice cream and chocolate syrup.
Pineapple Soda	.20
Cool off with one of these scrumptious sodas.
Root Beer Float	.15
A delicious and invigorating drink.
Brick Ice Cream	qt. .55
Six different flavors to choose from.

SANDY
Phone 331
PRESCRIPTION DRUGGISTS
IVAN A. BARKER - Proprietor
SANDY OREGON

Here and There Around The Sandy Area

Jim Chauncey announced on Thursday that his Sandy jewelry store will be closed Friday, July 2, "in loving memory of George Bistorious, Sr., a great man and a fine friend."

Mrs. Roy Colson and Mrs. Ellen Drescher last week attended a reception at Madras in honor of Mrs. Lela Ramsey, vice-president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon.

Former residents of North and South Dakota in the Sandy area are invited to the annual picnic of the Dakota States society at Jantzen beach, Portland, Sunday, July 11, according to Mae L. Sloan, president. Dakotans are asked to come at 11 a. m. with a picnic lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rueschka and their 9-year-old daughter, Joanne returned to their Sandy home last week from two months at Barton. Mr. Rueschka will teach piano in his home on Hood avenue this summer while continuing to improve a recreation park he is developing near Barton.

Upwards of 275 Odd Fellows from 15 Oregon lodges enjoyed the Sandy lodge's annual strawberry festival last week. Among the visitors who praised the Sandy lodge for its hospitality and who helped polish off 400 pounds of berries was Earl H. Shank, grand secretary of the I.O.O.F. of Oregon.

Seven Sandy boxers and wrestlers were the principal participants at the firemen's benefit sports show at Gresham last Friday night. Taking part were Jack Miller and Don Rice, who boxed at 170 pounds; Dean McMannis and Jack Hendricks, who boxed at 150; wrestlers Tommy Murray and Jack Miller, and Lon Allen.

F. H. Blackford, Poteau, Oklahoma newspaperman, is a visitor this week at the home of his brother-in-law, Jim B. Coop, rt. 1, Eagle Creek. Mr. Blackford likes the Sandy country and is considering staying here. He has been in the weekly newspaper business for more than 40 years and worked for William Allen White's Emporia Gazette in 1910.

Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Vedder spent Tuesday and Wednesday nights at Providence hospital, Portland, with their grandson, Donald R. Vedder, who was seriously injured Sunday while playing baseball for a Portland American Legion baseball team. Donald, a Washington high school student, suffered a head injury when hit by a thrown ball while running for second base.

Donald Gommoll sold 248 toothbrushes in a month and a half to win a spanking new bicycle from Baker's Drug store last week. The bike was offered to the Sandy boy or girl who proved to be Sandy's star toothbrush salesman. Donna Hathorn was the runner-up and won a new radio. Helping Donald pump air in his bike's tires were Jimmy Limbaugh, Paul Seematter, Dick Gray, Bunny Dahrens and Tommy Seaman.

Funds Raised for Chapel

There was fun even in the kitchen at the dinner to raise funds for electrical wiring for the Chapel of the Hills Tuesday evening at the Welches school house. Mrs. Chris Kochlin, who was credited at the dinner as the person most responsible for it, stands at the left of this picture.

Electrical Wiring Funds Raised At Chapel of the Hills Dinner

The Chapel of the Hills was given another boost toward completion when a couple of hundred persons attended a benefit dinner at Welches school Tuesday.

Funds raised at the dinner will be used to buy electrical wiring for the structure, now in an advanced stage of construction along the Loop highway between Cherryville and Brightwood.

Alan Olson, of Rhododendron was master of ceremonies for a program of music, talks and readings, at the meeting.

Those on the program were Mrs. Dorothy Hanson, Rhododendron, piano solo; Mrs. Marquerite Goff, Brightwood, vocal solo; Richie Porter, Portland, piano solo; Nancy and Coleen Dolp, Rhododendron, readings; John Lake, Rhododendron, accordion solo; Larry Smith, Portland, piano solo; Sharon Klowitter, Welches, vocal solo accompanied by Carol Alt, of Rhododendron; Mrs. Marjorie Jenkins, of Rhododendron, reading of original poem.

Miss Thyra Funk, minister of Darley Eliason will go to work for Troutdale's aluminum plant. He has given up baseball this summer in order to get his arm loosened up. He went through spring training with the Portland Beavers and their trainer commented that he had never seen an arm as tied up as Darley's.

Clay Pigeon shooter Bob Smith blasted out a 94 in the 16-yard event and a 93 in the handicap during a shoot up at Yakima last week-end. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Don Smith, and grandson, Robbin, went along on the trip. According to Bob, 13-month-old Robbin did not do so well in the shoot. "He'll get along all right, though," said Bob.

Some 300 Mormons from northern Oregon and southern Washington will convene at Gresham high school Sunday for the quarterly meeting of the Oregon district of the Church of Jesus Christ Latter Day Saints, according to Terrell I. Deck, Sandy, branch president. The public is invited to the session. Meetings will be held at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 7 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bistorious, Jr., threw a wiener roast for Tom Brown and Mrs. Evelyn Cowgill last Monday night. All these folks live up The Mountain. The wiener roast took place at the Bistorious's Wemme home.

Rev. George Whatmough was a house guest for four days last week at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. L. Rodda. Rev. Whatmough has hitch-hiked across the U. S., making the round trip 15 times, has traveled extensively in Europe and recently arrived home in the U. S. from a trip through Canada and Alaska. He tells of the present flood danger near the Canadian coast line, where many roads have been closed, and bridges washed out. He left Monday morning for Los Angeles, where he will stay for a while, and then will go to the East coast.

Thief Sentenced To 30 Days for $30 Wrist Watch

Harold Bone, a berry harvest worker, began serving 30 days in the county jail Tuesday after pleading guilty in Judge J. R. Hall's Sandy justice court to stealing a $30 wrist watch from the Sandy home where he was rooming. Bone was arrested by a state trooper Monday after he pawned the watch at a Sandy tavern.

Other business in Judge Hall's court this week:

The trial of Carl Frank Hoffner, Gresham, charged by state police with speeding his truck 55 miles per hour on the Loop between Sandy and Kelso, has been set for 2 p. m. next Tuesday in the Sandy city hall.

Lawrence Thompson, arrested June 22 on a disorderly conduct charge, was fined $30.

Eugene R. Stockman, arrested June 25 for reckless driving, was fined $35.

Desert Dan by LAZY B

And we try to make 'em go farther for you. Happy Fourth

Everybody

Lazy B Variety
EVERYTHING for EVERYBODY
WE GIVE U.S. GREEN STAMPS
MAIN ST. PHONE 731 SANDY, ORE.

PRODUCTS YOU PREFER...

PRICES YOU'LL LIKE!

Garden
TOMATO JUICE

46-oz. tin 19¢

Medley & Scales

SNOWDRIFT
Shortening
3-lb. tin $1.19

M.C.P. PECTIN
2 for 21¢

SALMON Silver Beauty, Alaska tin 33¢

With Pork—
Oven Baked Beans Heinz 2 cans 35¢

PEAS Elmdale, No. 2 tins 2 for 21¢

Chocolate Syrup Sifers Homogenized 14¢

Sunshine
KRISPY CRACKERS
lb. 25¢

Old Monk
FRENCH DRESSING
11¢
"The World's Finest"

Bleach
PUREX
1/2 Gallon 25¢

Grade A
Steer Beef

Meats

Grade A
Steer Beef

FOURTH OF JULY DINNER AND PICNIC SPECIALS

Swift's Premium
FRYER CHICKENS
lb. 69¢

FRYER RABBITS
lb. 59¢

Pork Roast lean lb. 49¢

Sliced Bacon Armour's Dexter, no rind, lb. 69¢

Lean Beef Short Ribs lb. 35¢

Medley & Scales

Phone 771

SEEDS - FEEDS - NEEDS

Sandy, Oregon

Help Improve Our Telephone Service
Attend Pow-Wower's OPEN MEETING
Wednesday
July 7, 6:30 p. m.

Mt. Hood Golf & Country Club

GUEST SPEAKERS
A. D. SCRIPTURE
C. A. WYMAN
both from West Coast Telephone Company
C. G. DUFFIN
of Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Comp'ny

Make Your Reservation with Mrs. H. W. Lofgren, Zigzag, or R. S. Smith, Sandy, NOW!

CLACKAMAS COUNTY BANK

Member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Phone Sandy 71

Main Street