Dean Grey now dressed in the Army Air Corp khaki, is home on furlough after completing basic training at San Antonio, Texas. He is staying with his grandmother, Mrs. Sadie Boshlm, before he reports to Lowry Field, Colorado, on July 11.

Mrs. George Bistorious, Jr., underwent an operation Tuesday at the Physicians and Surgeons hospital, Portland. She was taken to the hospital Monday and will return to her home at Welches in about a week.

Donald Vedder, 17 year old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Vedder, has been residing in Providence hospital, Portland, for the past week. He is recovering from a head injury he received while playing baseball.

R. S. Smith Motor Company's garage got a new coat of paint this week. The rain Tuesday halted the painters work momentarily. "It always seems to rain when those fellows come out to paint," was Mrs. Smith's comment.

George S. Koch whipped into Sandy Tuesday afternoon around 2 o'clock. He had been gone around 16 days on a business trip to Detroit and Los Angeles trying to find cars for forced sod trodders and wreck drivers. George flew most of the way and was amazed at the high speed air transportation. Those planes go even faster than his Pontiacs.

Improved Service Promised Soon

needed work hasn't been done because it has been impossible to obtain materials.

Ivan Barker, Sandy, said that in his opinion the time would come when the telephone companies would be forced to do something about the situation.

Wants Coin Stations
Mrs. Jennie Welch, of Welches, complained about lack of coin box stations in the mountains.

owns a summer residence in the Dr. J. J. Frahm, Portland, who Welches area, said he seldom can occupy it because he cannot obtain a telephone to keep in touch with his patients.

John Mills, Sandy, defended the Sandy operators but again called the telephone situation "deplorable" and recounted how one of his customers drove to Portland and returned with an item before Mr. Mills could complete a call to Portland to inquire about the item.

Other questions discussed concerned emergency calls in the mountain area, service to ski groups and other vacationers and similar problems.

About 45 persons attended the session. The group voted to suspend its August meeting.
