Committees Named By Grange Master: Building Discussed

BRIGHTWOOD—Some officers were elected and committee appointments announced at a recent meeting of the Brightwood Grange.

Dorothy Smothers was elected secretary, Curtis Wood was elected Gate Keeper, and Viola Malone was elected Ceres.

Master L. Earl Wilson appointed the following committees: Home economics committee, chairman Gertrude McPaul, assisted by Phebe Cole, Louise Gardener, Florence Machley, Mrs. J. R. Beauvais, Edith Richmond, Fern Goff, Nadine Bergman.

By-laws committee, chairman Samuel Rodman, Mrs. William Dunham, Bill Rounds, and C. J. Payne.

Legislative committee, chairman Alfred Hauglum, Joanthan Richmond, C. J. Walker.

Finance committee, chairman Ira Kidder, J. R. Beauvais, and William Hodges.

Relief committee, chairman Alice Hickey, Lillian Hodges and Curtis Wood.

Less Cole's reporting for the executive committee requested that the executive committee be temporarily augmented to include two additional members to be appointed from the membership at large, and that the committee proposed a questionnaire covering location and details on a Grange building be prepared and sent to each member.

He further stated that several sites had been discussed but none has been offered. The Master appointed William Giese and Wayne Hudson to serve on this committee. A meeting was called for the following week.

Music by Orchestra
Following the business meeting refreshments were served by Gertrude McPaul assisted by Dorothy Smothers, Esther Rodman, Ortha Kiese. During the evening music was furnished by the Brightwood Grange orchestra and Ortha Giese and Esther Rodman played a piano duet. The meeting closed following a community sing. Mr. and Mrs. William Dunham and Bill Rounds were given the first degree.

Next meeting of the Brightwood Grange is scheduled for August 7 when Ranger James Langdon will show the Mt. Desert fire picture. The program will include music.

Brightwood Woman Runs for Congress

Mrs. Peggy T. Carlson, Brightwood, widow of the late famed Marine corps officer commander, Brigadier Gen. Evans F. Carlson, was nominated as congressional candidate from the 3rd district at the organization meeting of Oregon's new Progressive party Sunday in Portland.

Two hundred persons attended the meeting which endorsed Henry Wallace for president.

The right of Mrs. Carlson, who resides in the 1st district, to run for office in the 3rd district has been questioned and a ruling is expected soon from the secretary of state's office.

Gen. and Mrs. Carlson came to Oregon to reside after the general had retired from a long career in the Marine corps. They made their home at Brightwood, where Gen. Carlson spent the last 2 years of his life. He was one of the Marine corps most decorated officers.

vertical freezer

It's true . . . a Norge Vertical Freezer can do wonders for your food budget! You can "stock up" during harvest seasons, when prices are lowest. You can take better advantage of shopping bargains. In addition, you can save through quantity buying; a freezer makes it practical to buy by the bushel, instead of by the pound.

Yes, you save with a Norge Vertical Freezer, but not at the expense of your palate. Meat, fish, fowl, fruits, vegetables . . . even pastries . . . reach your table as flavor-fresh and nutritious as the day they went into the freezer. You enjoy better food . . . greater variety in your meals . . . better balanced menus. And you can have "seasonal" delicacies any time of the year . . . pheasant in June, cantaloupe in January, choice bits from the Christmas turkey in March.

Let us show you how the Norge Vertical Freezer can bring better and less expensive meals to your household!
