Donna, visited Mrs. Hathorn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. B.
Wooten, in Hillsboro last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stewart left on Thursday for their home in Calgary, Alberta, after a vacation of several weeks spent at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jonsrud.

Alvin D. Wooten, Portland police officer, who was lost in the timber near Estacada recently, during a hunting trip is a nephew of Mrs. G. O. Hathorn and has visited her in Sandy several times.

Dr. and Mrs. William Grashorn are now grandparents for a second time. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. D.
Kaegi, Ashland, are the parents of a boy, Robert Dale, born Sunday.

Bob Murray, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray, Sr., returned Friday from Alaska where he has been homesteading. Bob has 169 acres of land with a half mile of lake frontage on the Kenai Peninsula. He had to live on the homestead and improve it for six months.

PTA Hears Ballot Points Reviewed

Two measures on the Nov. 2 ballots affecting education were discussed by B. O. Clark, principal of Sandy Grade School, at a Tuesday meeting of the P.T.A.

He spoke of the proposed state constitutional amendment giving persons not owning property the right to vote in school elections.
The suggested amendment to the six per cent tax limitation was also reviewed for P.T.A. members.

Mrs. Guy Chilton was named chairman of the group's annual membership drive. Announcement was made that two more view masters were purchased for the school.

Miss Arrie Rountree, missionary from Sandy to Bolivia, told of the conditions of schools there.
Buildings have grass roofs and benches are made of mud, she said.

Welches PTA Has Executive Meeting

WELCHES—A well attended executive meeting of the Welches P.T.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Burton at Rhododendron last Tuesday at 1:30 p. m.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Birk-meyer. Mrs. Langdon read a list of the goals outlined for the P.T.A. for the year 1948.

A committee was appointed to find out what playground equipment would be needed to help make the play period more enjoyable for the children.

Committees for the Christmas festivities were appointed. The program outlined for the P.T.A. meetings for the coming year was read and approved. After the business meeting lunch was served by Mrs. Burton.

The P.T.A. will sponsor a movie, "Anna and the King of Siam," at the grade school gym at 8 p. m. Oct. 29.

Millers Return From California

BULL RUN — Mr. and Mrs.
George Miller returned recently from a week's trip to California.
They visited Mrs. Miller's son, James Stewart, in the Mare Island Naval Hospital and also called on her sister, Mrs. Paul Borden, in San Francisco.

The two women had not seen each other for 20 years. The Millers also visited her nephew, David Allen, in Berkeley.

Mrs. Gus Mace, Sandy, and her daughter, Mrs. James Quinn of Fairfield Air Base, Calif., accompanied the Millers on their trip.
Mr. and Mrs. William Seidel spent Sunday visiting with Mr.
Seidel's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seidel, of New-berg.

Robert Murry, Jr., is home from Alaska. He and his uncle, Walter Helms, of Sherwood, went deer hunting Saturday morning and was home before noon with a buck, bagged in the hills near Bull Run.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Norquist visited with Mrs. Norquist's sister, Mrs. H. Swaren, of Irrigon, Ore., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hornback were recalled from a hunting trip because of the sudden death of Mrs. Hornback's sister in Seattle.

SURFS BACK INJURY

Mrs. George Wolf suffered a back injury Tuesday when she fell through the first floor ceiling at the home of her brother, Donald Burdick, in Kelso. She was taken to Emanuel Hospital by the Sandy Fire Department ambulance for treatment and returned home Wednesday.

Deer Hunters Have Success

CHERRYVILLE—Several hunters in this community seem to be having luck in bringing home that buck, with Charles Benson and sons, Jerry and Keith each bringing one home.

Homer Ballentyne, Jr., also brought one home from eastern Oregon.

Fred Kerlin and Mr. and Mrs.
Curt Wilhelmi attended the Oregon-California game in Portland Saturday.

Home from School
Robert Wilhelmi came home from Eugene to spend last weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Wilhelmi. Miss Bonnie Chappell accompanied him. They both attend the Oregon university.

Mrs. Wilhelmi gave a dinner Sunday in honor of Robert's 25th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Murray both brought home prizes from the card party held in Sandy Saturday night.

sen drove to Aloha Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Ott, old friends of Mrs. Amundsen.
Visitors at the Homer Ballentyne home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McQueory, of Portland.

Oscar Thayer had a visit Sunday afternoon from his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs.
George Allen, of Portland.

ALTMAN SERVICE HELD
Funeral services were held last Friday at 2 p. m. for Clarence Elmer Altman, rt. 2, box 236, Gresham, who died in a Portland hospital Oct. 12 after a long illness.

The Rev. E. L. Rodda, pastor of the Sandy Baptist Chapel officiated at the services, held at the Carroll Funeral Home, Gresham.
