Community Club Gives Pie Social to Aid Boy Hurt Last June in Shooting Mishap

AIMS—A total of $91 was earned at a pie social held 8 p. m. last Saturday in the Community Hall for the benefit of 13-year-old Jerry Lawson, who was injured last June when a gun carried by a playmate was accidentally discharged.

L. C. Van Ausdell acted as auctioneer for the sale of the pies. Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. Tom Paul, of Bull Run, and Warren James, of Portland.

Mrs. Paul was given a pair of hand-sewn pillow cases, which she promptly auctioned off and added $8.80 to the benefit fund. Mr. James won a box of stationery.

Young Lawson spent about three weeks in Emanuel Hospital following his accident and was unable to earn money during the strawberry season.

The benefit, sponsored by the Aims Community Club, expressed its thanks to the flume crew orchestra for providing music at the celebration.

Little Aneta McCoy, who drew the numbers for the door prizes, won a pie in the pie walk. Other lucky pie winners in the same contest were James Baker and Mrs. George Roberts, of Gresham.

Working in California
Joe Yeager, Jr., is working in Los Angeles. His family is still in Aims, waiting until he is sure his job is to be permanent.

Week end visitors of Nettie Connett were Mr. and Mrs. George Sly and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill French and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown, all from eastern Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cruson and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Warren James and children spent the week end at Aims.

Bill Lawson spent Sunday and Monday with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Keth Coburn in Portland.
