Woman Hangs Lights on Self as She Decorates Christmas Tree

RHODODENDRON — There's certainly lots of activity in our little town this Christmas. Every one is having fun decorating and putting up trees. Watched Mrs. Burton and Jerry Radmilovich decorate one of the trees at the store. For a few minutes it was hard to tell which was Mrs. Radmilovich and which was the tree. She hung the string of lights around her neck and from that point proceeded to put them on the tree.

This reporting job is becoming hazardous. I had to climb a 12 foot ladder and go up on the roof of the Rhododendron Store to get news as to what Vince Dolp was doing. Wanted to find out what kind of a tree he was going to put on the roof — it's a small one connected to the store's sign—he said it would have been bigger, but if it were it'd probably tear the sign down.

Tree Near Home
June and Ott Willis drove way off in the woods somewhere to find a Christmas tree—got stuck, spent an hour getting out—found beautiful tree in their own yard. This is probably one of the shortest stories on record, but bet it happens to lots of people.

In the big six wheel drive truck Jack Fahie and the two Henrys started in search of a tree. We drove over logs, through water two feet deep, through snow a lot deeper — didn't find a tree. Came home — found a tree in our own yard. Pretty one, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ Kochlin have been invited to spend Christmas Eve with the John Lakes. Christmas day they will spend in Portland with friends.

Return from Montana
Mrs. William Jensen and her little daughter, Cathy Ann, are here for the holidays. They arrived from Montana Tuesday morning. Mrs. Kiefer, Mrs. Jensen's mother, and Bob Voorhees, her brother, went in town to bring Mrs. Jensen and Cathy Ann back to the Kiefer home.

Mrs. William Hallam has been in Portland for the most part of the last two weeks; but she, Mr. Hallam and their son, Tom, will spend Christmas at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Miller with their son, Jack, and daughter, Katherine, left Tuesday for Ontario, Canada. During their absence Miller's Trading Post will be closed. They plan to be gone about a month. The Millers will visit Tom's folks, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Miller, in Thamesville and his daughter and family in Hamilton.

Conway Rites Read Friday At Parsonage

The parsonage of the Gresham Methodist Church was the scene last Friday of the marriage of Mrs. Helen Reitsma Conway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Reitsma, Boring, to Heber H. Holfort, son of Mrs. Daisy Holfort, Denver, Colo.

The 8 o'clock ceremony was performed by Dr. George W. Bruce.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of beige gabardine. The belt of the dress was trimmed with a 75 year-old gold buckle which had belonged to the bride's grandmother. She wore a black hat and black accessories with an orchid corsage.

Honor attendant was Miss Delores Serenich and best man was Clifford Hill.

A reception was held after the ceremony in the church parlors. Mrs. Opal Harding and Mrs. Clara Hill poured. Mrs. Clifford Hill served the cake, assisted by Miss Barbara Decker and Miss Carol Stroud.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kelly, of Maupin.

The couple will live in Boring.

Pity the medieval family!

• On cold days they had to huddle around the fireplace—if they wanted to keep warm. But you can treat your family royally—with heat that's truly fit for a king. If you're building a new house or remodelling, look into the advantages of oil circulating heaters. And remember—Standard Stove Oil is 100% distilled; that means it all burns—there's no waste!
