Seven More Men From This Region To Take Physical

Seven youths from this area, including two from Sandy, are among 50 draft registrants ordered to take pre-induction physical examinations Jan. 11 and 12 in the Portland Induction Center. Thirty will take tests Jan. 11, and 20 on Jan. 12.

The list was released by Mrs. Rose Morris Clackamas County Draft Board clerk. It includes Warren T. Johnston and Edward F. Polivka, both of Sandy; Harold C. Schweitzer and Roy A. Ledbury, both of Boring, and William H. Finley, Eagle Creek, in the Jan. 11 group. Hank Loeper, Boring, and Gene Beckman, Government Camp, are in the Jan. 12 group.

From these two groups will be chosen four men for military service from the county Jan. 27 and nine to be inducted in February.

The men have been ordered to report to the board's headquarters in the Hoesly Building, Milwaukee, where they will be given transportation to Portland.

Charles W. Forman, rt. 1, box 124, Sandy, was inducted into the army Dec. 28. George Allan Clinch, Boring, who volunteered for service Dec. 27, has been sent to Europe.

New Nylon-Wool Flag Outwears Woolen Type

Flags made of blended nylon and wool, recently developed by the Army Quartermaster Corps, have been found to have a life at least three times as long as standard all-wool flags. Consisting of 75 per cent nylon and 25 per cent wool, the improved flag fabric is expected to result in important economies in the purchase of thousands of storm, post and garrison flags required annually by the Army and Air Force.

In addition to its markedly superior wearing qualities, the blended nylon-wool flag has been found to be superior to the all-wool flags in retaining brightness of color and resisting soil. It may also be laundered many times without appreciable shrinkage.
