But there must be SOMETHING the matter.
It goes the wrong way on all the one way streets!

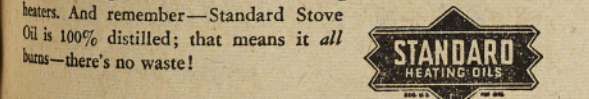

Anything's wrong with your car, ma'am, we'll find out what it is. Nothing escapes our checkup. We'll find it, and all it needs is a clean windshield—washed free whenever you drive in—and a change-over to summer-weight grease and oil. Your car will run more smoothly. Safer too.

Put the medieval family!

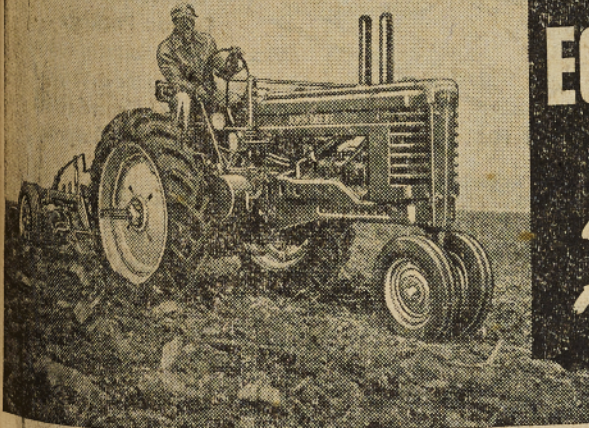

On cold days they had to huddle around the fireplace—if they wanted to keep warm. But you can treat your family royally—with heat that's truly fit for a king. If you're building a new house or remodeling, look into the advantages of oil circulating heaters. And remember—Standard Stove Oil is 100% distilled; that means it all burns—there's no waste!

Mt. Hood Region 4-H Club Notes
The 4-H Clubs of the Bull Run Community presented a program to raise funds for 4-H scholarships last Friday evening in the Bull Run School.

Gretchen Sepich, Walter Mayo, Mickey Lawson, Jerry Freeman and Mona Creekmur gave recitals of familiar poems.

Lotus Darnell and Marian Marsh gave an exhibition of baton twirling and tap dancing. They were accompanied with a musical number by Carol Skeslein and Shirley Brown.

A play entitled "The Meaning of 4-H" was presented by the following cast: Marion Marsh, Shirley Brown, Lotus Darnell, Clifford Sanders, Evelyn Loomis, Darrell Valarida, Carol Skeslein, and Harvey Brown.

FFA Students Place at Meet
who is also district president for FFA also spoke before the father and son banquet.

The meal was prepared by the home economics department of the high school and the Future Homemakers of America local chapter.

Glenn Carmony, president of the chapter was named district vice-president for the FFA.

During the evening Dr. William Grashorn and Harold Babcock were made honorary members of FFA. Three seeking awards were given to Gary Coats, Bobbie Minyard and Roger Bartholomew in the locally sponsored speech contest. Prizes were contributed by the Kiwanis club of Sandy.

Mrs. H. D. Slaughter of Dover will meet with the Clothing Club girls Friday afternoon, April 8, at the Dover School to begin work on the Clothing Club project.

Mrs. Myrabelle Paul, County 4-H Extension Agent, will meet with the group to assist and show the girls some finished articles and garments which are required in the respective projects.

Betty Bissonette, Darlene Dowell, Betty Hartor, Maureen O'Brien, Myrna Slaughter, Jean Sweeten and Rita Updegrave are the girls enrolled in the club. Maureen O'Brien is president, Betty Bissonette vice president and Darlene Dowell secretary. This group of girls plan to make exhibits at the county fair.

The Cooking Club has enrolled at Canby, Carolyn Gill, Dorothy Hartor, Colleen Murphy, Kathleen O'Brien and Sharon Porteous. It is hoped that this club can begin work immediately in order that the members may complete the project and make an exhibit at the county fair. A leader is needed for this group of girls.

Much interest is being shown by the boys in their livestock and garden work. Some of the boys have acquired their animals. A livestock leader is also needed for this group.

A 4-H demonstration meeting is scheduled to be held at the Shockey home, at Cherryville, April 19th. Mary Shockey and Valoy Kelstrom will plan and prepare the meal. Linda Shockey and Darlene King will put on a dessert demonstration. Mrs. Paul, 4-H Extension Agent, will be a guest and assist the girls with their demonstrations. Mrs. Alice Shockey is the leader of this cooking club. She is assisted by her daughter, Mary.

Mrs. Bella Dolp of Rhododendron will be leading a girls' Camp Cookery Club at Rhododendron. This locality is an ideal place for such a project.

The Cottrell Clothing Club under the leadership of Mrs. Emory Chase and Mrs. Jones will meet at the Cottrell School Friday afternoon. Mrs. Myrabelle Paul, County 4-H Extension Agent, will meet with the group to discuss problems of the club and to show finished articles in the various clothing projects. The county fair and demonstration will be explained by the county representative.

This is the season of the year when we might well be thinking in terms of garden, food preservation, home beautification and rose and flower clubs. Any boy or girl between the ages of 9 and 21 may carry one or more of these as an individual project, or he may be enrolled in a standard 4-H Club provided there are five or more members interested in the same project.

Anyone interested in carrying the work or leading a club may contact the Sandy office at The Sandy Post or the County 4-H Club office, Post Office Bldg., Oregon City. The county agents will be glad to help any group organize.

Bull Run Box Social Nets Scholarship Fees
BULL RUN—The 4-H Club basket social was well attended last Friday evening. Some of the prettiest boxes and a generous supply of fried chicken was enjoyed by those who were the lucky bidders. The high box brought $5.50. The social netted $67.65, which will be used by some lucky members who will go to Corvallis this summer. The members had a very nice program, and the extension leader of Clackamas County was present. She gave an interesting talk and made pictures during the program.

Dale Klingler is in school again after having his tonsils removed. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Harding and family are enjoying a visit from Mr. Harding's sister from back east.

Two new pupils have entered the Bull Run school. They are Olan and Mona Creekmur, formerly of Junction City, Oregon. They live on McKinnon's place. Mr. and Mrs. Toon, formerly of Bull Run, were visiting friends here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edes are having their share of sickness. The youngsters are having measles and chicken pox all at once.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Norquist, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Gust Shold, attended the dedication of a new Mission Covenant church at Albany, Sunday, April 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Ellingson of Portland were visitors at C. A. Norquist's Tuesday. Wednesday, Mr. Norquist's sister, Mrs. Ethel Ellingson of Portland and Archie Rose of Richland, Calif., were dinner guests.

Old English festivals were called "ales" whenever ale was the chief drink used.

Sandy Women Still in Regional Bowling Fray
Thelma Norquist and Ruby Gillmore stayed in the thick of competition this week in the KPOJ and Journal women's doubles bowling tournament. They will bowl the third round this week. In the second round, Norquist pasted the pins for a 551 series and Gillmore tagged a 538 for a team total of 1089.

FLUFF-DRI CLOTHES
Fresh - as a Daisy
in minutes—not hours!

Think of the extra pep you'd have—the hours you'd save—if you never had to hang out another wash—if you could dry it all indoors with a Hamilton Automatic Clothes Dryer!

No more struggling with heavy baskets—clotheslines—clothespins! Just put the clothes into your Hamilton, flick the switch and in a matter of minutes your clothes are gently tumbled fluffy-dry and wrinkle-free.

"But wait," you say! "How about the fresh air and sunshine on my clothes and linens? I like that. I want that."

Madam, good old Science thinks of everything! There's a powerful ultra-violet Sun-E-Day lamp in your Hamilton. It sanitizes your clothes and sweetly freshens them with genuine sunshine-and-breeze ozone. They smell like the breath of Spring.

How about that? How about dropping in for a free demonstration?
