Pomona Grange Visits Tualatin

Pomona Grange met at Tualatin last Wednesday and had a business and social meeting combined. Brightwood grange members who attended report a good time and a large crowd. Mr. and Mrs. L. Earl Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Rogan, Mr. and Mrs. J. Langdon, Mrs. Wayne Hudelson, Mrs. Virginia Hickey, Al Rounds and Fred Ferguson represented Brightwood Grange, and the Rogans and Langdons were given Pomona degree. The plan of county road maintenance was endorsed by the Grange—another step towards road improvement.

Duck! A Hard One's Coming!

The toughies bouncing balloons off each other's gloves are Douglas Will, son of Mr. and Mrs. Whitey Will, and Gary Lenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lenz. Doug is on the left and Gary's on the right. The referee is Clarke Lund Jr., son of P.T.A. boxing promoter Clarke Lund, Sr. This fight was the main event at the P.T.A.'s show last Wednesday and Thursday nights. Roy Wesselnk announced the fight. Postmen were Dale Peterson, Eugene Urban, Lyle Simpson and Eugene May.

Sandy Baseball Team Loses Twice in Last Week: Milwaukie and Mt. Angel

The Sandy Nine bowed twice during the last week, losing games to Milwaukie and Mt. Angel. Sandy lost to Milwaukie last Monday, April 18, on the Pioneer field. Pitching for Sandy was David Hopp. For Milwaukie was Zimmerman.

Hopp struck out two men, walked one and allowed ten hits. Zimmerman struck out eight men, walked two and allowed only one hit by McCormick in the seventh inning.

In the Sandy lineup was Bill Ramow, catcher; David Hopp, pitcher; Cecil Wilder, first base; Jim McCormick, second base; Raymond Gifford, third base; Bob Reynolds, short stop; David Starks, left field; Fred Koehler, centerfield; and Roger Bartholomew, right field.

In the first inning Rannow walked and was sacrificed to second by McCormick. Then Reynolds hit to the first baseman who put him out and then threw over the Milwaukie third baseman's head, letting Rannow in for the only run in the Sandy scorebook.

253 Get Chests X-Rayed Monday

During the one-day stay at Sandy of the mobile x-ray unit, Monday, more than 253 chests were examined according to Mrs. Georgia Farmer, director of the x-ray project while it was in Sandy.

In the first stop in the county, the X-ray unit's stand at Sandy High school was sponsored by the Oregon State Board of Health, Oregon Tuberculosis and Health Association, Clackamas County Health Department, and Clackamas County Public Health Association. Operation of the unit costs the sponsors about $100 a day, according to Mrs. Virginia Swanson, county health nurse.

regular allotment so that those waiting for new cars will not have to wait longer," he said.

Queen contestants are already out obtaining votes, according to Dr. William Grashorn, contest chairman.

Boring Firemen sponsored a dance Saturday night honoring their queen candidate, Princess Marjorie Gregson. Over 100 persons attended the dance.

Other princesses entered in the contest are: Joyce Wetherald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wetherald, Wemme, sponsored by the Mt. Hood Pow-Wowers; Donna Saling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Saling, Estacada, sponsored by the Estacada Kiwanis club; Nancy Lee Carter, daughter of Dr. T. B. Carter, Gresham, sponsored jointly by the Gresham Kiwanis, Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Clubs.
