Miss Bettis Wed June 19

The home garden of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bettis near Boring was the scene Saturday of the wedding of their daughter, Miss Virginia Ruth Bettis, to William E. Walker Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Walker, of Portland.

The double ring rites were read by Dr. G. W. Bruce, Gresham, at 8 p. m. before a setting of roses and blue and white delphiniums. Mrs. Wilbur Altman played the wedding march, and W. Wade Wilson, uncle of the bride, sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose an afternoon gown of navy blue crepe with white accessories. She carried a Bible with white orchid.

Mrs. George Timmons Jr., sister of the bride, from Albany, was the matron of honor. She wore an afternoon dress of royal blue crepe and corsage of yellow roses. Serving as best man for his son was William E. Walker Sr. Ushers were Kermit Markverden, Laighton Akins and Wallace Sager.

Approximately 50 relatives attended the reception held in the Bettis home. Mrs. Verne Curry, Beaverton, and Mrs. Malcolm Matlock, Portland, poured. They were assisted by Mrs. Kate Clark, Boring, and Miss Edith Shields, Seattle. Miss Judith Walker had charge of the guest book.

After a two-week wedding trip the couple will be at home at Buckley Park on S. E. 122nd avenue.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were W. Wade Wilson, Kamiah, Ida.; Miss Edith Shields, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. James Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bettis, of Vancouver, Wn.
