Janice Krebs Is Married in Sandy Church Rites to Leland Wagner

Miss Janice Krebs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Krebs, Gresham, and Leland Wagner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Wagner, Gresham, exchanged marriage vows Friday evening, July 1, in the Lutheran church in Sandy.

Rev. H. V. Gurney, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. Bouquets of Royal and Madonna lilies and blue delphiniums adorned the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white satin and wore a full-length veil belonging to her mother. She carried a bouquet of red roses set in white gladioli.

The matron of honor in orchid taffeta was Mrs. Kenneth Flath. Her nosegay was of yellow roses with white stock and lavender sweet peas.

Charlene Wagner, sister of the groom, in pink taffeta, and Helen Benda, also in pink taffeta, were bridesmaids. They carried nosegays of roses, with pink and white sweet peas, and wore matching sweet pea halos in their hair.

Sharon Wagner, niece of the groom, was junior bridesmaid and wore orchid taffeta. Her nosegay was of yellow roses, white stock, and lavender sweet peas.

Best man was Harold Wagner, brother of the groom. Ushers and candle lighters were Rodney Wagner and Kenneth Krebs. Organist was Mrs. Norman Erickson and soloist was Ted Shoen who sang, "Oh Promise Me," "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Twenty Third Psalm."

A reception followed at the Women's Club hall in Sandy. Pouring was Dorothy Krebs, Portland, and assisting at the punch bowl was Helen Suckow, Sandy, and Mrs. Emma Sturn, Portland. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Walter Krebs. Assisting the gift opening were Mrs. Richard Ulrich and Mrs. Harold Wagner. Thelma Lundborn passed the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a light gray suit with red accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

After a honeymoon in California, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wagner will reside in Gresham.
