Boring Fishermen Go on Cigar Spree

By Mrs. Alice Hickey

BORING—Hetzl V. Colt and Harry B. Calvert accompanied by W. H. Markham, (whom they caught before he had time to change clothes from his last fishing trip) spent the weekend trying to prove the fish stories about Crane Prairie were true. Wait rated an El Roi Tan cigar for the largest fish, Harry snared one for the first fish, and Colt smoked one anyway. (It was his boat.)
