Sandy Teacher Weds

Mrs. Charles C. Crone, who was Lillian Getchell before her wedding August 27 at the Chapel of the Hills, Brightwood. The couple will live in Sandy where Mrs. Crone will teach high school. They are now honeymooning in California.

Sandy High Teacher Marries In Chapel of Hills Wedding

Lillian M. Getchell, teacher at Sandy high school, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Getchell, Wisconsin, became the bride of Charles C. Crone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Crone, Sandy, at a candlelight ceremony August 27, at the Chapel of the Hills, Brightwood.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Thyra E. Funk, minister of the Chapel, witnessed by a quiet gathering of friends and relatives.

The bride, given in marriage by Floyd Light, Sandy, wore a white marquisette gown with lace trimmed yoke and a long flowing train. Her three-quarter-length veil fell from a coronet and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli with red rose centers.

Jean Trojan, her only attendant, wore a yellow moire taffeta frock and carried a matching bouquet of yellow gladioli with yellow rose centers.

Jerrel Crone, brother of the bridegroom was best man. Dean Snyder, Keith Snyder, Ralph Brown and Howard Vaeretti were ushers and candlelighters.

Soloist Dan MacDonald, sang "Because" and "The Lords Prayer."

The reception was held in the Chapel with Mrs. Charles Croston at the punch bowl. The cake was cut by Mrs. J. Vaeretti, assisted by Mrs. Harold F. Babcock and Mrs. Elwood Egelston.

For a honeymoon to California the bride changed to a beige suit with brown accessories. After September 5 the couple will be at home in Sandy.

The bride came to Sandy last year to teach Sandy high school. She will teach here again this coming term. Mr. Crone is making plans to attend college this fall.

Rainbow Girls Present Fruit To Aged at Forest Grove Home, Sunday

Fourteen Sandy Rainbow girls visited the Masonic home for the aged in Forest Grove Sunday, August 28. All summer long they have been canning cherries, apricots, and peaches to be presented to the home at this visit. They have worked hard at preparing a program and the 55 quarts of fruit that were presented there Sunday.

They left Sunday at 1 p. m. and arrived in time to give their program at 3 p. m. The entertainment consisted of an accordion solo by Doris Knox, a square dance performed by eight of the girls, a piano solo by Mrs. Ruth Leum, mother advisor of the Rainbow girls, and a skit by five of the girls.

Well Received
They were well received Mrs. Leum said. Those who were able, attended the program put on by the girls, and residents of the home who were bedfast, could listen over a loud speaker.

After the program was over Mrs. Leum said the girls spent some time visiting the elderly folks living there before returning to Sandy. She said an enjoyable time was had by both the Rainbow Girls and the residents of the Masonic Home. A return trip was promised by the girls for next year.

Participants
Those participating in the visit were Blanche Packard, Pat Gomoll, Lyla Swails, Sharon and LaVaughn Sleeper, Wanda Lee, Jo Anne Chilton, Garnett Rohde, Shirley Shultz, Doris Knox, Beverly Boylan, Lenore Lund, Nancy Dove and Doris Wilcox.

They were driven to Forest Grove by Mrs. Ruth Leum, mother advisor, Mr. and Mrs. C. Rohde, and Mr. and Mrs. Harrie Longstaff.
