Saturday Rites Wed Couple In Gresham Methodist Church

The wedding of Miss Shirley Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Glover, of Boring, and C. Wayne Carrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carrell, Gresham, was an event of October 1, among white chrysanthemum and pink dahlias in the Methodist church in Gresham. Reverend George W. Bruce officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white heavy satin trimmed in lace. The off-the-shoulder gown had a net yoke and long sleeves. Seed pearls held her veil in place and she carried a white carnation bouquet centered with an orchid.

Maid of Honor

Maid of honor was Miss Helen Stark in yellow slipper satin with matching satin halo. She carried a deep pink carnation bouquet.

Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Bartholomeu and Miss Doris Ashbough. Both were gowned in blue satin with matching satin halos and carried pink and yellow carnation bouquets.

Flower Girls

Twin flower girls were Joyce and Janet Baker in pink satin. The bride's mother was attired in teal green with brown accessories and the groom's mother wore a navy blue and pink print with navy accessories.

Fred Morgan was best man and ushers were James McGraw, Delos Glover, Harold Glover and Jack Glover.

Reception

Soloists were Thomas Thomson who sang "Because" and "At Dawning" and Mrs. Harlan Hawkins who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

At the reception held in the flower decked church parlors, Mrs. Cora Bates poured, Mrs. O. H. Baker cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Ida Catlow served the flat cake. Punch was served by Mrs. Harold Glover and Mrs. Donald Turner and Mrs. Kenneth Baker assisted.

150 Guests

Miss Wilda Hawkins was in charge of the guest book and listed among the over 150 attending were guests from Roseburg, Portland, Salem, Ferndale, Washington; Richland, Washington; Seattle; and Oakland, California, as well as neighboring communities.

The bride chose as a going-away suit, a wine woolen, with navy blue accessories and her wedding orchid. After a honeymoon in Victoria, B. C., the couple will be at home in Spokane, Washington, after October 10.

Kelso Woman's Club With Mrs. Packard

KELSO—The Kelso Woman's club met with Mrs. P. O. Packard, Thursday afternoon, September 22. Members present were Mrs. A. C. Baumbach, Mrs. G. Carmony, Mrs. John Holman, Mrs. Joel Jarl, Mrs. Mary Kligel, Mrs. Otto Miller, Mrs. C. R. Peterson, Mrs. P. C. Spooner and the hostess Mrs. P. O. Packard.

Guests were Mrs. Edward Herz and Mrs. William Dollowitch. After the brief business meeting, presided over by the president, Mrs. Kligel, the afternoon was enjoyed socially and with refreshments and a guessing game in which prizes were awarded to Mrs. Herz and Mrs. Kligel. The next meeting of the club will be October 27 at the home of Mrs. John Holman.

Sandy BPWs Meet Jointly With Portland

The members of the Sandy Business and Professional Woman's club met for a fireside meeting, September 28, at the home of Mrs. Donna Grashorn.

During the business meeting the club voted to accept the invitation extended by the Portland club to attend their dinner meeting, October 12, at the Pompeian Room in the Congress hotel. Mayor Dorothy McCullough Lee will speak to the group. This will take the place of the Sandy BPW October dinner meeting formerly scheduled at the Fireside at that time.

Refreshments were served after the meeting to Mrs. Mary Kohnen, Mrs. Audrey Hornback, Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Helen Lundree, Mrs. Donna Grashorn, Mrs. Verna Medley, Mrs. Esther Hoffman, Mrs. Florence McGlade, Mrs. Edna Gunderson, Mrs. Anne Martin, Mrs. Louise Crutcher, Mrs. Lorraine Martin, Mrs. Alice Ackers, Mrs. Minerva Beeson, Mrs. Florence Schmitz, Miss Ellen Schmidt, and Mrs. Freda Olson.

Guest Day To Be Held October 6

The Sandy Woman's club featured October 6 as guest day at its regular meeting in the club hall in Sandy.

Invitations were issued to all Woman's organization in the community and all women of Sandy were invited to attend.

Speakers at the meeting were Chaplain and Mrs. John W. Beard, Portland. A tea followed the program with hostesses, Mrs. F. M. Forman, Mrs. C. L. Idleman, Mrs. E. Olson and Mrs. R. S. Bunnell. Mrs. C. A. Lindell and Mrs. R. Jonsrud served on the reception committee.

Woman's Club Holds Party Oct. 1

A program and pound party was held at the Woman's club hall Saturday, October 1, in honor of the new teachers of the Seventh Day Adventist school.

New teachers are Charles Rutan, who teaches grades seven, eight and nine, and Mrs. Rutan, who teaches grades one and two, Mrs. Kimball is third, fourth and fifth grade teacher.

These teachers are all newcomers to Sandy community.

Forty-six pupils have enrolled in the school this year, ten of which are in the ninth grade.

Home Economics Club Of Grange To Meet At Butlers

The home economics club of the Sandy Grange met at the new home of Mrs. V. Dell Butler at Roslin lake Tuesday for potluck dinner.

Ten members attended. Included in the business considered was the home economics bazaar, planned for Saturday, October 21, to make the final arrangements for the bazaar.

The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. A. Neilson at Roslin lake, Tuesday, November 1, at noon. A potluck dinner will be featured.

Mr. and Mrs. Zeryl Silver and daughters, Sandra and Zella Kay, left Friday to visit Mrs. Silver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gump at Eugene. They returned Sunday evening. Their oldest daughter, Marilyn, was a guest at the Lyle Seaman home during their absence.

Sandy Ridge Womans Club Bazaar To Be Held October 8

Sixteen members were present for the meeting of the Sandy Ridge Woman's club Thursday, September 29, at the home of Mrs. Carl J. Sandstrom. A potluck dinner was served to those present, including Mrs. Mildred Dickman, Mrs. Margaret Major and Mrs. Charlotte Wunische as new members.

Final plans for the annual turkey dinner, bazaar and card party which will be held in the Sandy Masonic temple next Saturday, October 8, were completed.

The bazaar will begin in the afternoon and dinner will be served at 5 p.m. followed by a card party at 8 p.m.

General Chairman
Mrs. V. E. Wilder, general chairman of the dinner committee, will be assisted by Mrs. Oscar Olson, club president, Mrs. Leslie Wallace, Mrs. Nellie Riddersh, Mrs. Vicie Case and other members of the club.

Mrs. Will Bell, assisted by another group of club members, will be in charge of the bazaar and country store.

Community Chest
At the Saturday night meeting birthday wishes in song were extended to Mrs. Marie Wunische, Mrs. David Bell, Mrs. Lucille Wagner, Mrs. Mildred Dickman and Mrs. Emma Harder. The club contributed the annual amount of $5 to the community chest.

Mrs. Leslie Wallace was awarded the contract to clear the acre of land owned by the club.

Social Meeting Held At IOOF

The Sandy IOOF lodge held a social meeting at the IOOF hall Monday evening, October 3. The evening entertainment included a card party with prizes awarded the high and low men in pinochle and 500. Approximately 60 members were present, some playing cards while others played pool. Prizes were also awarded the pool players.

No business was conducted at this meeting. It was a gathering planned by the social club of the IOOF lodge and was restricted to pleasure only.

Sandy Grange To Hold Usual Meet

The Sandy Grange will hold its regular meeting on Saturday, October 8, at 10:30 a.m., at the Grange headquarters in Kelso.

A potluck dinner will be served at noon. This will be the first of the day meetings which are scheduled through April. During the summer months the Grange met in the evening.
