California Guest Visits At Dyal Home

By Alice Hickey

BRIGHTWOOD—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dyal have as a guest Mrs. Dyal's mother, Mrs. E. B. Lealand of Sand Leandro, California. Old Sol has contributed much toward making her stay pleasant.

Miss Lorena Steiner is at home again after a brief visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Brink of Cherry Grove.

Mrs. Chester Smith drove out from Portland Wednesday of last week. She had made previous arrangements with a rest home in Oregon City to care for Mrs. Toni La Brache, where Mrs. La Brache is recuperating and receiving the care she needs.

Friends wishing to cheer her up may contact her at 318 South 2nd street, Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Richter and children of Littleton, Colorado, motored out west to visit Mrs. Richter's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson.

Other out of state folk visiting the Brightwood area are Mr. and Mrs. Mabry who are here from Wyoming. They were former owners of the Brightwood Tavern.

Mrs. Mae Nelson, Erwin, Tennessee, is a guest at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goff.

E. E. Goff recently announced sale of his interest in the Goff Coffee shop to his brother, R. L. Goff.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smothers had last week, house guests from Sunnymeade, California, Mrs. Smothers sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Kelly, from near Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Payne were weekend visitors at Jarvis, Oregon, at the home of Mr. Payne's cousin and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Brinkley.

Mrs. Richmond spent the weekend at her home here. Mrs. Richmond tells us she is feeling fine again after the shake up she had recently, and is teaching full time at school in Minnville.

Visitors for a day at the home of Mrs. Joyce Vettors were Mr. and Mrs. Longstaff.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Aufranc and son, Dennis, were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Aufranc's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cole.

Mrs. L. Buxton Is Guest At Boring Birthday Dinner

By Eleanor Calvert

BORING—Mrs. Lyle Buxton was guest of honor at a birthday dinner given for her by Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Sutton at their home October 1. Attending were Miss Evelyn Moats, Lyle Buxton, Marc Buxton and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Calvert.

A group of local nimrods including Jimmie Forman, George Hoar, Barney Child, Red Coit, Lloyd Hoar, Irvin Child, Kenny Child, Frank Gregson and Carl Gregson, Jr., joined in an expedition in pursuit of the elusive buck. Their quarry proved gun shy but a lonely coyote didn't and they brought back its scalp to prove it.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Naas and son David, attended the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Still of Eagle Creek on October 1. Twenty-seven guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gregson received a telephone call from their son Bob, who will be stationed in San Francisco, until January 1. His ship, the destroyer USS Shelton, will be in dry dock until then.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Naas, accompanied by Mrs. Ada Dugger and Mrs. May Naas, drove to Washougal, Washington, last week to visit Mrs. Nan Beard, who has been ill for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Altwasser, of Portland, were accompanied by Mrs. Ada Dugger and Mrs. Eunice Fitzgerald, of Boring, on a trip to Washougal to visit the grandmother of Mrs. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Nan Beard.

Callers at the home of Mrs. Ada Dugger on Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Florest Beavers, of Portland.

H. B. Ashley, of Klamath Falls, called at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ada Dugger, last week.

On the minor casualty list, is little Patsy Mahaffey, who got her head caught in the merry-go-round on the school grounds. Her forehead now proudly bears the decoration of four stitches.

Bowling season in Boring is getting underway with the town represented by two teams, "The Boring Fire Department," and "Jay's Tavern."

Harry B. Calvert spent last week in Myrtle Creek completing the installation of the "super Swede" set-works at the Nordin Lumber Company's sawmill. Red Coit joined in the fun over the weekend.

Eagle Creek Lady Travels To Madras On Cattle Business

EAGLE CREEK—The Ladies Aid will hold a special sewing day at the home of Mrs. Faust in the near future.

The World Fellowship Circle will meet Thursday, October 6, at 2 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Louise Douglas, Estacada.

Miss Gladys Coop took a trip up Madras way to learn more of the calf business on the Indian Reservation. In about two weeks she will go back there at "round up" time to purchase calves. She enjoyed the scenery on her trip and also the customs of the region.

Mabery Hunters Bag Deer First Day Out

Mrs. Walter Metzler

MABERY—Earl Nordin was the first man at Mabery to get a deer. With two companions he had gone to Lapine, Oregon, Friday, prepared to spend several days. On Saturday morning each of the three men shot a deer within sight of their camp.

"There was nothing more we could do so we came home Saturday night," Mr. Nordin said. Two years ago Mr. Nordin came home from an unsuccessful hunt to find that deer had visited his strawberry patch during his absence.

Ninth Birthday Is Celebrated With Epperson Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Epperson entertained September 30 in honor of their daughter Neida's, ninth birthday.

The table was colorfully decorated with toy balloons and favors and a generous sized cake with nine candles. Games were played and songs were sung by all the guests present.

Present were Mary Seidel, Nancy Seidel, Clara Ellis, Vivian Christenson, "Mom" Seidel, Dorothy Epperson and Vee Allos, Bobby Seidel, Leon Ellis, Udean Epperson, Freddie Canler, "Dad" Seidel and Bob Epperson.
