Karmen Allgeir and Bob Clapp Are Married At Eagle Creek

Karmen K. Allgeir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Keck, Eagle Creek, and Robert A. Clapp, Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Clapp, Sandy, were married Wednesday, October 12, at the bride's home at Willow Springs, Eagle Creek.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Waldo Hicks at 7 p.m. before an altar of white satin backed with autumn leaves, white streamers and fall flowers.

The bride was gowned in white nylon with gold sequin trim, white coronet with matching sequins. Her slippers were white and gold and she carried a corsage of pink rose buds.

Her attendant, Mrs. Gordon Clapp, wore pink crepe and a gardenia corsage. The bride's mother wore a dress of royal blue chiffon with pale blue lace and a white gardenia and the mother of the bridegroom wore a blue gabardine dress with a white gardenia.

Best man was Gordon Clapp, brother of the bridegroom.

A reception followed with Mrs. Charles Lane cutting the cake and Mrs. Ben Clapp pouring. Guest book was passed by Miss Phyllis Clapp, sister of the bridegroom.

The bride chose as her going away costume a tan suit with chocolate brown and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink rose buds and baby's breath. The couple will be at home in Portland after October 19.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Neighbour and Miss Phyllis Clapp, Portland. Twenty-two guests were present at the wedding.

Couple Of Mabery Bring Back Deer

MABERY—Mrs. Bill Beatty and son, Norman, each shot a deer on their hunting trip to eastern Oregon last week. The Beatty's came home by way of Eugene where they visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Conradi and got a glimpse of their new granddaughter, Diane Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Johannes Koch had as their guests last week, Mrs. Koch's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Burrell and son, Billy, of Napa, California.

Wedding Rites At Methodist Church Held

MABERY—The Friendly Corner Methodist church, was the scene of an informal wedding ceremony last Sunday for Miss Pearl Nordin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Nordin, Mabery, and Henry Jaenke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jaenke, Gresham. Rev. Fletcher Cannell officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of yellow nylon with a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Ethel Yost, Boring, the bride's attendant, was gowned in pastel blue and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Best man was James Moore, Portland, brother-in-law of the groom.

Following the ceremony, a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents to members of the immediate families.

Mrs. Jaenke is a graduate of Sandy high school and her husband was, until recently, with the Merchant Marines.

The couple will live at Pleasant Home.

Sandy Woman's Club Plans Anniversary Party Tuesday, October 18

On Tuesday afternoon, October 18, the members of the Sandy Ridge Woman's club are planning to celebrate the 20th anniversary of the club in the annex of the Sandy Community church.

An invitation is extended to all neighboring clubs, ladies aid societies, school organizations and fraternal groups to be guests on that afternoon. There will be a program and refreshments.

A card party will be held by the Sandy Grange, Saturday, October 15 at the Grange headquarters in Kelso. Host and hostess will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moon.
