Young Boring Boy Bags Four Pointer

By Eleanor M. Calvert
BORING—Buck fever reigns in Boring. When they say "Did you have any luck?" they don't mean are you making any money, they mean "did you bring back a four pointer?"
Fourteen-year-old Frances Flynn is making the oldsters look to their laurels. He brought down a good sized four pointer. He was accompanied by a party of 13. Boringites included in the group were Abe Flynn (his justly proud Papa), Ed Maulding, Bud Nelson, Clyde Sipe, Orval Westby and Bob Meyers.

Successful Hunt
Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Knox and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Frost proved their prowess at Post, Oregon. They brought back two three-pointers and one four-pointer.

Roscoe Knox, Post, Oregon, is in town visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances.

The Boring Fountain Lunch is now under the management of Mrs. Jessie Gerber.

The Boring Rebekahs gave their quarterly birthday party on October 27, honoring birthdays occurring in July, August and September. Among those feted were Mrs. Eva Harris, Miss Edith Anderson, Mrs. Genevieve Valberg and Mrs. Katie Menser.

Mrs. Ray Naas and Mrs. Kenneth Valberg represented the Boring Home Extension unit at a project leaders school in Oregon City last week. These project leaders will demonstrate "the preparation and baking of light, hot breads" at the forthcoming extension unit meeting on October 21 at the Boring fire hall.

The Boring Hardware has added magazines and records to their stock, and for the small (and tall) fry, comic books.

Harold Jacobson, of the Jacobson Funeral Home, 91st and Foster, has donated 1,000 mailing handbills and 150 posters to boost the dances, which benefit the firemen and grange.

Henry Becker celebrated his 82nd birthday, at a family dinner party, given in his honor by his daughter, Mrs. E. M. Amsbury, at her Portland home. Included among the 17 guests were his daughter, Mrs. George Salings, of Estacada, and his grandson, Bob Amsbury, who is known as "Uncle Bob" at radio station KEX.

The Emil Kociemba's are the proud parents of a daughter,

Marci Ann, who made her six pound six ounce arrival at the Portland Sanitarium October 6. Mr. and Mrs. Arno Ritter have returned from a weekend deer hunting trip near Madras. (Sans deer!)

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gregson have returned from a hunting trip at Post. They bagged their quarry, a fine four-point buck.

Lawrence Lund To Pitch
Lawrence Lund will pitch for the Pasadena Pirates. He leaves for Monrovia, California October 19.

The Tom Telford's have another boy. They've named the tyke, who announced his eight pound presence at Emanuel hospital, on October 9, Wallace R. Telford. Grandpa Telford is beaming!
