Coral Nelson, W. E. Stinson Rites Held In Salem Church

Coral Louise Nelson, daughter of Wilmer E. Nelson, West Salem, and Mrs. Gladys L. Ballard, Salem Heights, was married Saturday evening at 7:30 p. m. October 15, at the Chapel of St. Paul Episcopal church in Salem to Wilburn E. Stinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stinson, Brooks, with Rev. George H. Swift officiating.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocatel suit and an orchid corsage. Her attendant, Miss Evelyn Killin, wore a rust suit. Both the bride and her attendant carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums. The chapel was decorated with baskets of chrysanthemums and white satin streamers.

Best Man

Best man for the bridegroom was Clifford Evans.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Mather, Albany. Assisting were Mrs. Amil Killen, Albany, Miss Betty Boice, cousin of the bridegroom and Mrs. W. E. Nelson was in charge of the gifts.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Cora Wilkins, Sandy, and Mrs. Louise Nelson, Pleasant Home, grandmothers of the bride.

Home In Salem

The bride is a former resident of Pleasant Home and attended school at Orient before moving to Salem, where she graduated from Salem high school in 1947. She is employed with the telephone company where she will continue to work. The bridegroom is in the merchandise business with his father at Brooks.

The couple left for Los Angeles after the reception and will be at home at 395, East Madrona Avenue, Salem on their return.
