Louise Hodson, Woman's Editor

Child's Fund
Gets Big Boost
At Club Meet

Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, Portland, president of the Third District Federation, was the principal speaker at the December 1 meeting of the Sandy Woman's club.

She outlined the program for the districts, told of the relations to the State Federation, and answered questions of the members.

The Sandy Woman's club this year, instead of having Christmas gift exchange, have a collection box for the P-TA Sandy Children Relief Fund. At the close of the last meeting, $13.18 had been donated to this cause. Mrs. R. S. Bunnell has been appointed to represent the club in the Relief Fund drive.

Mrs. S. A. Mollner and Mrs. John Metzger were in charge of the program, Mrs. John Ferry was receptionist, and Mrs. Richard Wesselink and Mrs. Walter Wesselink were hostesses.

The musical portion of the program was under the direction of Mrs. Alma Francis Fields. Elgin Burn's high school girls' choir was on hand to sing several Christmas numbers.

At this meeting an announcement was made of the next art class, to be held Monday, December 12, at 1 p.m. This newly formed art class is directed by Mrs. Colista Dowling, a well known Portland artist.

The Woman's club card party will be held Saturday, January 7.

Dorcas Society Plans
Sale On December 15

Some of the work being done by the Dorcas Society of the Seventh Day Adventist church that meets each week is canning, mending clothing, sending packages overseas as well as to needy families in the states.

Over 100 cans of tomatoes and corn have been canned, and 21 quarts of applesauce have been canned by Mrs. Roy Tupper, nine boxes of clothing have been mended, packaged and sent overseas which totaled 336 pounds.

An eight pound package was also shipped recently to a needy family in Montana.

The Society also carries on work here at home such as church suppers and showers. A sale is planned for December 15 of fancy work and food. Details of the sale will be released next week.

Rider's Club Plans
Christmas Party

Sixteen members of the Oregon Trail Rider's were present for the November 22 meeting of the club when it was voted that the club join the Clackamas County Riding Club association.

A Christmas party was scheduled at this meeting for December 13.

After the business session was completed, a lunch was served by Mrs. Tex Rice. One visitor was present, Miss Ardith Terpenning.

All persons interested in riding are invited to join the club and attend the meetings which are held at 8 p.m. every second and fourth Tuesday of each month at the Sandy Sportsmen's club.

Rebekah Lodge To Hold Installation

Thursday evening, December 8, the Past Noble Grand club will be in charge of the Rebekah lodge meeting. Mrs. William Bell, president of the club, will preside over the gathering.

A program under the direction of Mrs. Adolph Amstad will be given, with Mrs. Clara Sandstrom accompanying the members in group singing. A reading will be given by Mrs. Kenneth Wilcox and Mrs. Ruth Leum will be soloist.

After the program, installation of officers will be conducted followed by refreshments served by the committee, Mrs. Ed Bruns, Mrs. V. D. Butler and Mrs. Carl Gomoll.

W.M.U. Leader Meets
With Local Group Dec. 1

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church of Sandy met December 1, at the home of Mrs. John Sture, with Mrs. Wilson, head of the state W.M.U. as guest.

Mrs. Wilson gave a complete book review on "Japan's New Day," by Edwin B. Dolzer, a missionary on the field.

On December 8, Mrs. Roland P. Hood and two guest missionaries of China will conduct a program at the Sandy Woman's club hall in cooperation with the First Baptist W.M.U. of Sandy.

Olaf Anderson Is Feted With Party

Last Tuesday evening, a birthday party was given by Mrs. Olaf Anderson for her husband with a few friends in for the evening. Those helping Mr. Anderson celebrate his birthday were: Mr. and Mrs. August Bartsch, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Eggers, Mr. and Mrs. George Floyd and Mr. and Mrs. John Metzger.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd have just recently moved to Sandy from Ventura, California, and have bought the Wilder place.

Sandy Grange To Meet
For Installation Sat.

The Sandy Grange which meets every second Saturday of the month at 10 a.m. will hold its next meeting at the Grange hall in Kelso.

Installation of officers and third and fourth degree work will take place in the morning and a potluck dinner will be served at noon.

Aims Family Visits In Vancouver, Washington

AIMS—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haggstrom and family spent one day of last week visiting Mrs. Haggstrom's mother, Mrs. Ella Provence, in Vancouver, Washington.

Mrs. S. B. Lawson spent the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. Marion James, who is quite ill. Nettie Connett spent Monday of this week in Portland on business.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lusky Rowland these last few days is their son and family of Berkeley, California.

Cottrell Church Holds
Thanksgiving Service

COTTRELL — The Cottrell Community church will have its Thanksgiving service next Sunday December 11, at 11 a.m. Everyone is invited and may bring whatever he has that may be of use to the needy.

No matter how large or small the offering, the church staff asks that you bring something. All items received will be given to those that need them.
