

Adeste Fidelis

Bunnell's Variety Store
Main Street Sandy, Oregon

TODAY, AS IN
THE DAY WHEN
THREE WISE MEN
FOUND HIM...

...Let us express our hopes for the future through prayer. As we kneel in Homage on this Holy Day, let us pray for peace on earth. And let us determine to enact those ideals, in the months and years to come, which will help in making our prayers a reality. A Merry Christmas to all of you.

BEESON CHEVROLET
Mt. Hood Loop Highway
Phone 681 Sandy Or.

Society and Club News

Louise Hodson, Woman's Editor

Darnell-Marsh Rites Held In Gresham Church Friday, Dec. 16

Among cedar boughs and white chrysanthemums at the Methodist church in Gresham, Bonnie Jean Darnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Darnell of Sandy, became the bride of Charles Marsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Marsh, Bull Run, on Friday, December 16, at 8 p.m.

Rev. George Bruce performed the double ring ceremony with Dyann Kahny as soloist, accompanied by organist Wally Nelson. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown with a short train and a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of white carnations with yellow rose buds.

Miss Arlene Seamatter, the bride's honor attendant, was gowned in a pink satin brocade formal and carried a nosegay of pink and yellow carnations. Flower girls were Cherryl Anne, in an aqua dress with matching headpiece and Karen Sue Darnell, in a pink dress with matching headpiece. Each carried baskets of carnation petals.

Bridesmaids were Miss Lotus Darnell, gowned in a pastel green formal with a nosegay of red carnations and junior bridesmaid, Miss Marian Marsh, in a pink dress with a nosegay of pink carnations.

The brides mother chose a brown afternoon dress for the occasion with a corsage of white carnations and yellow rose buds. The bridegroom's mother wore green with a corsage of white carnations.

Best man for the bridegroom was Bob Marsh, of Sandy, and ushers were Max Schaffer and Jim Morgan.

Miss Pat Gomoll and Miss Virginia Dagsland were candle-lighters.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church parlors. Miss Beatrice Miller poured with Miss Clara Darnell assisting. Miss Allie Long cut the wedding cake and Miss Genevieve Rolli passed the guest book.

For her going away costume, the bride chose a gray suit with green accessories and a corsage of white carnations and yellow rose buds. Their wedding trip will be to Timberline Lodge. The couple plan to be home at Bull Run after December 18.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Darnell, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Long and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Long, Mrs. Lilly May, Miss Nelda Duff, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Barnes, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stewart, all from Hillsboro; Mr. and Mrs. Ora Addington, Cresswell, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Long and daughter, from Cottage Grove.

Toastmistress Club Elects Officers At Regular Dinner Meet

The Gresham Toastmistress club held its regular dinner meeting Wednesday, December 14, combined with election of officers and a Christmas party at the home of Miss Norma Hundley, Gresham.

Each member brought gifts and clothes for a needy family and a collection was taken for welfare relief.

Topic mistress for the evening was Mrs. Ruth Carmody; toastmistress, Mrs. Quenten Norquist, and speaker, Mrs. Charles Hamilton. Evaluators were Mrs. George Hartwig, Mrs. Harry Rice and Mrs. George Steel.

Officers elected at the meeting were: President, Mrs. George Hartwig; vice president, Mrs. Quenten Norquist, secretary, Mrs. Russel Sherwood, and treasurer, Mrs. Ruth Carmody.

Kelso Club Holds A Christmas Party

KELSO—The Kelso Woman's club met Thursday, December 15, at the home of Mrs. Henry Schwartz, with a potluck lunch served at noon to the following members: Mrs. Mary Kligel, Mrs. G. L. Carmony, Mrs. Joel Jarl, Mrs. D. R. Peterson, Mrs. R. J. Arnett, Mrs. Otto Miller, Mrs. John Holman, Mrs. Anna Houck and the hostess, Mrs. Schwartz.

The meeting was in the nature of a Christmas party with an exchange of gifts. A letter was read from Mrs. Evelyn Critton, former club member now living at Seaside.

Mrs. Kligel, club president, spoke briefly on her recent trip to California. Roll call was answered by the telling of Christmas plans and the afternoon was spent working on a club quilt.

Try Erma's
Home Cooking
Erma's Rancho Eats
Cherryville
—On the Loop Highway—

Sandy Pioneers Feted Sunday; Wed 25 Years

The silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bell of Boring was celebrated at their home Sunday, December 11, with a large group of friends and relatives present.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell were married in Vancouver, Washington, on December 11, 1924. Both are native Oregonians. Mr. Bell was born at Eagle Creek in 1886, and Mrs. Bell, formerly Emily Salquist, was born in Gresham in 1905.

They lived all their lives in Sandy until 10 years ago when they moved to Boring.

Five Children

The Bells have five children: Ellsworth, in Vancouver, Washington; Carl, Boring; Robert, Sandy; Merle, Montana, and Mrs. Patricia Morgan, of Gresham.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell can relate many interesting stories of the history of our community, its changes and progress down through the years. Mr. Bell says the main change is the roads. He says it was a lot different when the main street in Sandy was made of planks. He and his brother, the late A. W. Bell, ran the mail stage drawn by four horses from Boring to Rhododendron. They held the contract for four years.

Logging

A farmer for the past few years, Mr. Bell in earlier years was employed in the logging industry.

Present for the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Olson, Beaverton, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Nicholson, Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Linn and family, Oregon City, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Linn, Hood River, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Still, Eagle Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Boring, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan, Jr., and Oscar Stone, of Gresham.

Portland guests were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Holm, Miss Audrey Still and Phil Smith.

Sandy Guests

Present from Sandy were: Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hillyard and Paula, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dove and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Bell, Mrs. A. W. Bell, Mrs. Mary Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Littlepage and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bell, Mr. and Mrs. David Bell and Tulley, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bell.

All attending brought gifts for the couple.

The very fact that Christmas is with us again ought to bring joy enough, but we want to gild the lily by wishing everyone a wonderful holiday.

MAC'S SHOES and MEN'S WEAR
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas MacEachern
Loop Highway Sandy, Oregon

We Invite You... to worship with us

In our Blessed Savior who on Christmas Day

Came to earth to save us and in manger lay

May you and all your dear ones find True peace of soul, full joy of mind

IMMANUEL LUTHERAN CHURCH

Children's Christmas Services:
December 23 and 24, 7:30 p.m.

Christmas Day Services:
December 25, 9 and 11 a.m.

Since we cannot shake each one of you by the hand to give you our good wishes personally—we want to take this opportunity to express our hopes that this Christmas and the coming New Year be one of joy and goodness for each and every one of you—our friends and patrons.

SANDY TRUCK LINE

Phone Sandy 511

Sandy, Oregon