Sandy High Teachers Wed; Salem Rites Held Saturday

Miss Mary Jane Turnbull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Turnbull, of Salem, and Henry O. Pete, son of Mrs. Susan Pete, Glendale, Oregon, both Sandy high school teachers, were married Saturday, December 24, at 10:30 a.m. in the First Presbyterian church in Salem. The Reverend Doctor Hamblin performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a royal blue street length ensemble with a corsage of pink orchids. The matron of honor, Mrs. John T. Turnbull, wore a gold and black street length gown with a corsage of gold orchids. Best man was Leslie Pete, of Banks. Guests were members of the immediate families. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull are both instructors at Sandy Union high school. Mr. Pete is coach of the basketball team and teaches algebra and physics. The former Miss Turnbull joined the staff as teacher of home economics this fall. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Alpha and Alpha Omicron Po sororities. The couple will be at home in Sandy after January 3, 1950.

Wesselinks Feted December 17 For Silver Anniversary

On December 17 Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wesselink were surprised by a group of friends and relatives for a 25th wedding celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesselink, who have lived in Sandy for the past eight years, were married in Sheldon, Iowa, on December 17, 1924. They lived in Iowa and owned and operated a hatchery before coming to Sandy in 1942. They bought a farm just south of Sandy where they have lived since coming here.

Flying is a hobby with Mr. Wesselink and he has built a landing strip on his farm, where he keeps his plane and where his friends keep theirs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesselink have two children: Mrs. Willis Oldenkamp, and Wally Wesselink, both of Sandy.

Those attending the celebration held at the Wesselink home were: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wesselink and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Deming, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ourecky and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ilge, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Moon and family, Rev. and Mrs. Waldo Hicks and family, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Zeller and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Oldenkamp, John Oldenkamp, and Wally Wesselink.

Sandy BPW Holds A Christmas Party

The Sandy Business and Professional Women's club held its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Oscar Olson on Wednesday, December 21. A very short meeting was held to take care of immediate business and gifts were exchanged.

Mrs. John Hillyard took pictures of the tree and members, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Members present were Mrs. Walter Hoffman, Mrs. Warren Crutcher, Mrs. Anne Martin, Mrs. Robert Medley, Mrs. W. M. Grashorn, Mrs. Lorraine Martin, Mrs. Carl Loundree, Jr., Mrs. John Hillyard, Mrs. Joe Ackers, Mrs. Alfred Gunderson, Miss Ellen Schmidt, Miss Altha Chandler, Mrs. Leon Roberts, Miss Florence Pierce, Mrs. Treva Eberling, Mrs. E. M. Schmitz, and hostess, Mrs. Oscar Olson.

Visitors were Miss Mary Gene Fey, Miss Sue Bridges, Mrs. Bridges and Mrs. Fred Dickman.

One delegate and some of the members plan to attend the National Convention of the BPW in San Francisco in July.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baumbach returned Sunday evening from a seven week's trip with relatives in Iowa, Wisconsin and California. The Baumbachs made the trip by train. At Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, a reunion with 50 relatives present was held in their honor.

Mary Ann Finnell Weds C. Nicholson At Brightwood Sat.

In a quiet ceremony at the Chapel of the Hills, Brightwood, on Saturday, December 24, Mary Ann Finnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Finnell of Cherryville, was married to Carroll M. Nicholson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Nicholson, Sandy.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Thyra Funk, minister of the Chapel, among Christmas decorations of potted plants and foliage.

For her wedding the bride chose a light blue dinner dress with a matching bouquet.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The wedding cake was cut by the bride.

The couple will be at home after December 26 at Pilot Rock, where the bridegroom is employed. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Sandy high. Out of town guests included Mrs. S. D. Whaley and son, Norman, Portland; James Garrett, J. A. Garrett and Clayton Garrett of Antelope.

Installation Held At PNG Meeting

The Past Noble Grand club held installation of officers at its last meeting at the home of Mrs. Sadie Bosholm on Tuesday, December 20, with Mrs. Lewis Hall installed as president, replacing Mrs. Will Bell, past president.

Mrs. Peter Markvardsen replaced Mrs. Frank Rehberg as vice president; Mrs. Roy Colson, past secretary was replaced by Mrs. Frank Rehberg, and Mrs. Will Bell took the place of Mrs. Robert Moon as treasurer.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Sadie Bosholm and Mrs. Adolph Amstad. This was the club's Christmas party, with refreshments and exchange of gifts. The meeting was well attended.

Eastern Star Holds Election Of Officers

The Order of the Eastern Star held public installation in the Masonic hall the evening of December 27.

The officers installed are: Worthy matron, Lois Volbrecht; worthy patron, Charles Fitch; associate matron, Ruth Leum; associate patron, Fred Wagner; secretary, Augusta Bruns; treasurer, Agnes Barker; conductress, Hazel Robinson; associate conductress, Sue Johnson; chaplain, Rose Wagner; marshal, Helen Nelson, and organist, Gert-rude Alt.

Star points are LaVelle Babcock, Mildred McElreath, Shirley Freeman, Marie Motejl, Margaret Jarvis, and warder is Grace Fitch. Will Giese was elected sentinel.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Buystedt and family have purchased the J. P. Strowbridge place and have moved in. The Buysteds have three children: Lester, Neil and RoJane. They formerly lived in the Powell Valley district. Mr. Buystedt is Sunday school superintendent at Sandy Baptist Chapel.

Knox-Lee Nuptials Performed At Powell Valley December 26

At a candlelight ceremony at the Powell Valley Mission Covenant church Monday, December 26, Doris Knox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Knox, of Boring, became the bride of Larry L. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Landon Lee of Sandy, with approximately 300 present.

Rev. Edwin O. Solie performed the single ring ceremony among baskets of chrysanthemums and pink snapdragons at a candlelight altar.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown with a full train and fingertip tulle lace veil held in place by a beaded trimmed halo. Her gown was fitted with a sweetheart neckline trimmed in lace and she wore a three-strand necklace of pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and yellow rosebuds.

The maid of honor, Miss Beverly Knox, a sister of the bride, wore an orchid celanese taffeta and carried a nosegay of carnations with blue streamers.

Bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Hewitt, Boring, dressed in Nile green over satin and carrying a nosegay of red and yellow carnations with ribbon streamers, and Miss Joan Schnepf, Boring, in pink taffeta with a nosegay of pink carnations with pink ribbon streamers.

Candlelighters were Miss Marilyn Markham in pastel green and Miss Sharon Frost in blue, both of Boring.

Sharon Markham, flowergirl, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Markham, was dressed in a white satin floor length gown and carried a basket of red rose petals.

Best man for the occasion was Allen Anderson, Sandy, and ushers were David Stensvad and Fred Koehler, Jr., of Sandy.

The prelude series and the wedding marches were played by Wanda Lee and vocalist Mrs. Alma Francis Fields sang, "Because," and "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Miss Lois Solie on the organ.

The bride's mother wore a street length dark blue crepe dress and a corsage of white carnations and the bridegroom's mother wore a street dress of aqua blue crepe and a corsage of white carnations and yellow roses.

Miss Carol Layng was in charge of the gifts and Mrs. J. B. Clyde served at the punch bowl. Mrs. A. J. Crose cut the wedding cake and Mrs. V. Frost passed the guest book. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Walter Markham, Norma Erickson and Donna Noreen.

The newlyweds will make their home in Sandy and take a delayed honeymoon next fall.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cook, Sacramento, California; Olaf Rude, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Crose and son, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Clyde, of Portland.

Boring Son Leaves After Visit Home

BORING—Dock Hunt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Dock Hunt, Boring, arrived home from San Diego, California, on December 18, after spending the past three months in basic training in the navy there.

Dock left Tuesday, December 27, to return to his base in California, where he has been wrestling for the navy team. He expects to be stationed there as long as he is on the team.
