Rainbow Girls To Hold Installation

The Sandy Rainbow Girls organization held election of officers at its regular meeting Wednesday, January 4, and will hold public installation on Wednesday, January 25, at 8 p.m., at the Masonic hall.

January 25 will also be the date of the official visit of the grand worthy advisor, Miss Hazel Engle, of Woodburn. A special program is being planned by the girls for that evening.

On Christmas night the Rainbow Girls showed their holiday spirit by canvassing the city in Robert Medley's delivery truck driven by Guy Chilton. They also made a trip to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fields, where they made recordings of their carols. The same evening a Christmas party was held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Leum with an exchange of gifts and refreshments.

Home Ec Club Meets To Plan Year Work

The Home Economics club of the Sandy Grange met at the home of Mrs. Frank Rehberg on Tuesday, January 3, to outline the work of the club for the coming year.

A pot luck dinner was held at noon and the business meeting was conducted in the afternoon. Definite plans will be released after the next meeting.

School Is Scheduled For Eastern Star Officers

The Eastern Star school of instructions for officers will be held on Saturday, January 7, at 1 p.m., at the Masonic hall, with Mrs. Alice Robinson, of Independence, grand conductress, present to act as instructor.

The regular meeting of the organization will be held on Tuesday, January 10.

Wed At Powell Valley

A bite of wedding cake is taken by the new bridegroom, Larry Lee, Sandy, from the hands of his bride, the former Doris Knox, of Boring. The couple was married at the Powell Valley Mission church on Monday, December 26. Rev. E. O. Solie performed the ceremony.

Gresham Toastmistress Club Installs Sandy Lady President

Mrs. George Hartwig, Sandy, was installed as new president of the Gresham Toastmistress club at its regular meeting at the home of Miss Norma Hundley, Gresham, on Wednesday, December 28.

A. B. Hays, speech instructor at West Linn high school, Oregon City, was guest speaker and evaluator at the meeting, and Mrs. H. L. Rice, Gresham, acted as installing officer.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Quanten Norquist, Sandy, vice president; Mrs. Donald Steel, Portland, secretary, and Mrs. Oran Carmony, Portland, Treasurer.

Outgoing officers were Mrs. H. L. Rice, president; Mrs. George Hartwig, vice president; Miss Pearl Ruegg, Gresham, secretary; and Miss Norma Hundley, Gresham, treasurer. Offices are held for six months.

Aim For Year
Mrs. Hartwig's aim for her coming term is for the club to "Build and Grow." "The club is now a year old," Mrs. Hartwig says, "and it is now time for the members to develop the foundation that has already been laid."

The Toastmistress clubs were organized for the purpose of improving through study and practice in conversation, speech group leadership and critical listening, according to the by-laws of the organization. Ultimate objective of toastmistress training is the stimulation of conscious service to the community.

Ladies interested in joining the Gresham Toastmistress club may contact any member for information.

Board Meeting
A board meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 4, at the home of Mrs. Hartwig in Sandy, and the first meeting of the year will be held at Miss Hundley's, Gresham, on Wednesday, January 11. (Picture page 8.)

New Year's Party Of Sandy Grange Is Huge Success

About 75 persons were present Saturday night, December 31 for the initiation and New Year's eve party and dance given by the Sandy Grange at the Grange hall.

Fred Ehlers and Charles Johnson were initiated into the third and fourth degrees of the Grange.

The degree work was given at the early part of the evening and a dance followed. Supper was served at midnight and all present participated in a community sing. Music for dancing was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. George Gunderson and Mr. Verdigan.

Sandy Ridge Club Elects New Officers

The Sandy Ridge Woman's club elected its officers at its regular meeting Tuesday, January 3, at the home of Mrs. William Bell.

The meeting began with a pot luck dinner at noon and a business session during the afternoon. Outgoing officers of the club are: Mrs. Oscar Olson, president; Mrs. Emil Fuerstenau, vice president; Mrs. David Bell, secretary, and Mrs. Will Bell, treasurer.

The members also outlined the work for the coming year at this meeting.
