Pioneer Society Meets Jan. 29 To Make Plans For Year Ahead

The winter meeting of the Sandy Pioneer Association is scheduled for Sunday, January 29, at the Sandy Grange hall in Kelso. A potluck dinner will be served at noon with the business meeting following in the afternoon.

The Sandy Pioneer Association, which meets twice a year, held its last meeting on the last Sunday in July when members began work on the two acre park which was donated to the association by Bea Nelson, one of the oldest pioneers in the Sandy area. The park site is located about two miles west of Sandy on the Sandy Ridge cut-off and Loop highway intersection.

The January meeting will be for all members and those eligible to become members. To become a member of the association a prospective member must be a resident of Oregon for at least 20 years.

President of the Sandy Pioneer Association is V. Dell Butler, vice president is Henry Perret and secretary is Mrs. Joel Jarl.

Plans for improving the park and discussing the possibility of a building will be made at the coming meeting. Last year tables and benches were made by the pioneers for the park and some talk and observations were made concerning the auditorium to be built in the future.

At the January meeting the king and queen will be selected for the year. The oldest couple of the association are qualified for this honor and will be coronated at the summer meeting next July when the annual "Pioneer Picnic" will be held at the park.

A special program is planned for the picnic and will feature speakers, entertainment and an all day feed. This affair is the largest and most important social function of the Sandy Pioneers and has always been well attended by members and friends.

Three Links Club To Sponsor Dance

The Three Links club of the IOOF lodge will sponsor dances at the IOOF hall on the last Saturday of each month, according to reports from chairman, Guy Wilcox.

Dances will be free but proceeds from refreshments to be sold will be used for repairs, and paint for the IOOF building. The Three Links is the social club of the IOOF.

Sandy Group Enjoy A Musical Evening

A musical New Year's Eve was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alma Francis Fields with community singing, refreshments and a display of local talent.

Entertainment for the evening included a solo by Miss Mariann Bensick, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Leum, two piano solos by Mrs. Leum and community singing.

A buffet supper was served at midnight to Mr. and Mrs. August Bartch, Mrs. Alma R. Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Metzger, G. I. Roberts, John McDowell, Miss Jean Scales, Mrs. Alan Anderson, Miss Mariann Bensick, Mrs. Ruth Leum, Mrs. Norris MacDowall.

Program Committee Of Gresham I.T.C. Plans For Future

The program committee of the Gresham Toastmasters gathered at the home of Mrs. George Hartwig, newly installed president, on Wednesday, January 4, to discuss the club program for the coming six months.

The next regular business meeting will be Wednesday, January 25, at the home of Miss Norma Hundley, Gresham, and the first meeting of February will be open house and, according to Mrs. Hartwig, P.T.A. members and officers will be urged to attend the Toastmasters business meetings. February will be guest month.

Present at the committee meeting were Mrs. Quenten Norquist, Mrs. Eugene Vedder, Mrs. Charles Carlstrom and the hostess, Mrs. George Hartwig.

Don P. Shidler, vice president of the Gospel Missions Union will be at Sandy Baptist Chapel on January 16 and 17.

Meetings Delayed For Social Groups During Cold Snap

Club activities as well as many other social functions have been taking a back seat in the past two weeks, due to treacherous driving conditions and deep snow in and around Sandy.

Schools have been closed because busses are unable to travel the roads in the rural districts, club meetings have been postponed, and social and business contacts have been impaired by damage done to telephone wires by weather conditions.

The Sandy Woman's club card party, which was scheduled for Saturday night, January 7, was cancelled, and the Sandy Ridge Woman's club's regular meeting on the first Thursday of the month was postponed until February 2, because of bad road conditions preventing members from getting to the meeting place.

The Sandy Business and Professional club which was to meet at the fireside Wednesday, January 11, has been delayed until Wednesday, January 25, with weather permitting. Cards will be sent to members confirming the actual dates.

Local churches have been holding meetings to sparse congregations and rural residents have been confined to their homes.

The Sandy Rainbow Girls have been unable to hold meetings at the regular time. The business meeting for January 4 was changed to Wednesday, January 18, when election of officers will take place.

Organizations which have had their hands tied during the cold and snow season will have added loads to carry in their coming meetings.

All possible efforts have been made by the social organization to plan by mail and telephone which has kept down most of the confusion of uncertain meeting dates.

Though the weather has thrown everything off schedule for a time, plans are going ahead with work for the coming year without too much confusion, most of the organization heads have confirmed.

Initiation Is Slated By Rainbow Girls

Election of officers and initiation is scheduled for the January 18 meeting of the Sandy Rainbow Girls, according to Mrs. Ruth Leum, mother-advisor of the organization.

All members should be present for this meeting, Mrs. Leum says, who can possibly attend. The January 4 meeting was postponed due to the weather conditions.

Vacation Is Over For Guests At Sandy

Misses Joan and Roberta Schmalz, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmalz, have returned to their respective schools after a Christmas vacation spent at home in Sandy.

Joan is a junior at the University of Portland college of nursing and Roberta is an instructor in English and speech at Amity high school in Amity.

Guests of the girls at their home over the Christmas holidays were: Mary Bea Hill, Olympia, Washington; Paul Jenkins, Corvallis, and Jim Dordick, Portland, a student at Oregon State college. Most of their vacation time was spent skiing at Mount Hood.

Beesons Are Home From Holiday Trip

An enjoyable two week's vacation trip to California was ended for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Beeson who returned Tuesday, January 3.

While in California the Beesons visited Mrs. Beeson's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Michaelson, at Los Gatos, and her brother, William Caldwell, Sacramento. They also visited friends in San Francisco.

Their trip took them as far south as San Luis Obispo, and Mrs. Beeson says the weather was ideal and flowers were blooming all around. They missed the Sandy snow storm almost completely, she says.
