Pat Murray; Bill Scott To Wed In Gresham April 15th

A bridal shower was given by Mrs. Ivan Barker and Mrs. Thomas Scales Friday evening for Pat Murray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Murray, at the Barker home.

Thirty-two were present for the occasion and many others, not attending sent gifts. Mrs. M. G. Scott and Mrs. Murray assisted Pat in opening the many attractive and useful gifts she received.

Miss Murray will marry Bill Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Scott, on April 15 in the Gresham Methodist church with Rev. George W. Bruce officiating.

A graduate of Sandy high in 1948, Miss Murray has been attending Oregon State college at Corvallis. She does not intend to return to college.

Guests attending the shower were Mrs. Oscar Olson, Mrs. M. G. Scott, Mrs. R. C. Murray, Mrs. Robert Murray, Mrs. J. R. Murray, Mrs. George Beers, Mrs. R. S. Bunnell, Mrs. Alice Scales, Mrs. Thomas Scales, Mrs. Ernest Greenwood, Mrs. J. V. Rafferty and Kathy and Elene, Mrs. Cecil Duke, Mrs. Harvey Schneider, Mrs. Frank Schmitz, Miss Olive Gist, Mrs. Ed Herz, Mrs. Carl Loundree, Sr., Mrs. Adolph Kotzman, Mrs. Rosaline Brown, Mrs. Loren Roberts and Mrs. Steve Mollner.

Others present were Mrs. Otto Motejl, Mrs. Robert Duncan, Mrs. Vern Alt, Mrs. Alfred Meinig, Mrs. Robert Medley and Mrs. Ivan Barker.

Seventh Day Adventists Give An Educational Program At Church Sat.

A well attended meeting of the Home and School division of the Seventh Day Adventist church was held at the Masonic hall Saturday evening, March 11.

Discussion of the evening pertained to proper sex education and training of children and youth.

Material used was furnished by Dr. Harold Shyrock, M. D., Dean of the College of Medical Evangelists of Loma Linda, California.

Charles Rutan gave a talk on parent responsibility. Others taking part in the program were Mrs. Aurelia Walsh, who spoke on "proper perspective," Mrs. Allen Wallace, whose topic was "typical questions," and Mrs. Ray Grenberg gave a talk on "goals to be attained."

Before and after the main session of the meeting a film was shown of travel on the Isle of Carabean and also of Yellowstone National park.

Musical Program Is Presented At Adventist Church

Over 100 members of the Seventh Day Adventist church were present Friday, March 10, for the "Missionary Volunteer meeting musical and program held at the church."

The program opened with a vibraharp solo, by Mrs. Ronald Kegley, followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Myron Tupper.

A reading was given by Mrs. Gerald De Lay, a vocal duet was presented by Mrs. Winslow and Miss Phyllis Edwards, and a poem was recited by Benny Wertman.

Mrs. George Stiles and Mrs. Carol Bakke sang a vocal duet, "Ere You Left Your Room," and "The Last Hymn" was read by Mrs. Joy Winter.

Other features of the program were a vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Kegley, a story by Mrs. Charles Rutman, a vocal duet by Elder and Mrs. E. S. Coy and in closing, a saxophone solo by Mr. Kegley.

Lucille Schmitz Plans To Wed D. Schneider

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmitz announce the engagement of their daughter Lucille, to Dean Schneider, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Schneider, of Sandy.

Miss Schmitz held an engagement luncheon Saturday with a few of her friends. Attending were Pat Murray, Marilyn Dyal, Beverly Searles, Phyllis Matz, Rita Hafhagen, Mrs. Harvey Schneider and her mother, Mrs. Frank Schmitz.

Both Dean and Miss Schmitz are graduates of Sandy high school and have lived in Sandy all their lives. Dean is attending Multnomah college in Portland and Miss Schmitz is working at the Telephone Office in Sandy.

They plan to be married sometime this summer.

Birthday Party Honors Local Nine Year Old

The ninth birthday of Sharon Gunderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gunderson, was celebrated at her home Tuesday afternoon, March 7, with a party of her friends and schoolmates.

Mrs. Gunderson assisted her daughter in opening the many gifts she received and then the children were seated at a table decorated with favors, gayly colored napkins and a large birthday cake attractively decorated with a circus scene.

After refreshments of cake, ice cream and punch, the youngsters played games.

Attending the celebration were Roger Hoffman, Diane Williams, Joann Eliason, Richard Dahrens, Wallace Gunderson, Carol Gunderson, Joann Cunningham, Beverly Cunningham, Shirley Schmitz, Judy Loundree, Larry Loundree, Dianna Hemmers, Ruth Andreason and Ronnie Harris.

Others present were Mrs. Lillie Beers, Mrs. Florence Modrell, Miss Ollie Gist, Mrs. Charles Harris, Mrs. Carl Loundree, Jr., Mrs. Wally Gunderson, Mrs. John Williams and Mrs. John A. Cunningham.

L.W.M.L Meets; Two Members Are Added

About 25 members and guests attended the March meeting of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League of Immanuel Lutheran church last Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Harvey Griffin, of Cottrell, with Mrs. Louis Katzberg as co-hostess.

Mrs. Harvey Kubitz had charge of the program for the day, "Bible Study in Church."

Mrs. John Krieger and Miss Marie Krieger of route 2, Sandy, were taken in as new members. It was announced that the LWML of zone 3 will meet March 23 at 11:30 a.m. at Calvary church, S.E. 84th and Insley, Portland. There will be a speaker, and all members were urged to attend.

Delegates chosen for the LWML Oregon-Washington convention to be held in Portland on April 25 and 26 were Mrs. Norman Erickson and Mrs. Harvey Kubitz, with Mrs. N. E. Dey and Mrs. Henry Schwartz as alternates.

Guest Candidates Initiated Monday Into IOOF Lodge

Eight candidates from Tygh Valley and Maupin were initiated into the Independent Order of Odd Fellows by the Sandy IOOF lodge Monday evening, March 13.

Approximately 65 were present for the initiation from Tygh Valley, Maupin, Gresham and Sandy lodges. Members of the Sandy Rebekah lodge served the refreshments at tables decorated with a spring garden theme.

Tuesday evening a large number of the Sandy IOOF members attended the Estacada lodge for an Oyster supper.

Local Girl To Leave Soon on A Holland Tour

A surprise two-month's trip to Holland was offered to Marian Vaeretti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Vaeretti, route 1, Sandy, by Gerard de Stoppelaar, of Sandy, who will receive a medal from King George VI of England for accomplishments during World War II.

Miss Vaeretti, a Sandy high graduate and a junior in pre-dentistry at the University of Oregon at Eugene, will leave with Mr. de Stoppelaar, of Sandy on Tuesday, March 21.

Mr. de Stoppelaar came to America in 1946 after serving in the Holland underground and in the English secret service. King George will award him a medal for service in the cause of freedom at the British Embassy in The Hague.

After the two month's trip, Miss Vaeretti will resume studies next fall at the Portland School of Dentistry. She first learned of the travel opportunity last Thursday. Mr. de Stoppelaar will visit his mother in Holland while there.

Grange Meets At Eagle Creek Mon.

By Mrs. H. M. Mason
EAGLE CREEK—The grange officers had a satisfactory meeting on March 6, with 14 present. The Home Economics club has chosen masonite table covering project this year, and have scheduled a clean-up day when the masonite is on hand.

Clarence McDonald's chicken house is nearing completion. He is doing all the work himself.

In Portland
Fred Hoffmeister and wife are again staying with their daughter in Portland.

Harvey Fait is still very ill. Joe Bracket, brother of Dora Clester, is confined to the Emanuel hospital.

Mrs. Mildred E. Mason has returned from a weekend at Corvallis, where she attended a lecturers' conference representing Eagle Creek grange. It was a very successful meeting and proved exceptionally interesting and educational, she says.

On the same trip Mrs. Mason visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Granville Sturtevant, in Sweet Home, and her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Voegelien.

Mrs. Pearl Christian, teacher at Eagle Creek, had to place her son of Union school in Dornbecker children's hospital for treatment of polio in his throat. Reports are that he is improving slowly.

Forest fires each year destroy enough pulp size trees to produce 3,250,000 tons of newsprint—enough to supply every newspaper in the United States for one year.

Baby Shower Given For Mrs. V. Ulmen

A baby shower was given by Mrs. Roy Anderson and Mrs. Leonard Searles at the Anderson home last Friday night, for Mrs. Victor Ulmen.

Mrs. Ulmen received a host of gifts from attending guests and also from friends and relatives in Montana, where she formerly lived.

Miss Arlene Seamatter assisted Mrs. Ulmen in opening the gifts and refreshments were served.

Present were Mrs. Ed Buswell, Mrs. Charles Edwards, Mrs. Ira Lunsford, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. Lucy Todd, Miss Arlene Seamatter, Mrs. Leonard Searles and Mrs. Roy Anderson.

Sending gifts but not attending were Mrs. Carl Gomoll, Mrs. Alfred Meinig, Miss Nellie Crank and Mrs. Walter Alt.
