Shirley Allen Married Friday In Sandy Community Church

Miss Shirley Rae Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allen, Sandy, was married to Delbert Wilson, son of Mrs. Ora Wilson, Falls City, Friday, March 24, at 8 p.m. in the Sandy Community Church. The Rev. Waldo Hicks performed the single ring ceremony before a candlelit altar.

The church was decorated with daffodils and pussy willows and lighted candelabra. Mrs. Roy Allen sang, "Because," and "You Were Meant for Me," accompanied by Mrs. Willis Oldenkamp at the piano.

Bride Wears Coronet

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a slipper satin gown made en train with sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. She wore a coronet of orange blossoms with a fingertip veil and carried a white Bible with an orchid.

Dorcas Society To Send Clothing To Needy In Europe

The Dorcas Society of the Seventh Day Adventist church met at the home of Mrs. Henry Levison on Bluff road Tuesday, March 28. The afternoon was spent working on garments and making quilts for shipment to the needy in Europe.

Over 200 pounds of clothing have been shipped by the society this month. Heavier clothing is sent to the cooler climates, such as Germany, while lighter garments go to southern Europe.

Besides European relief, the Dorcas society is cooperating with the Mt. Hood Welfare association in local relief work. The society is running low on used clothing and welcomes donations. Those who have clothing may call Mrs. Meeker, or Sandy 202.

Delegates Are Selected For Rebekah Assembly

Delegates to the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon were chosen for the Sandy Rebekah Lodge at its regular meeting Thursday, March 23. Sandy's delegates are Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. George Miller and Mrs. Adolph Kottman. Alternates are Mrs. Norris McDowell and Sadie Bosholm.

The degree captain, Mrs. L. C. Van Audsall, was appointed District Deputy President.

A birthday night table was set with a cake for members whose birthdays fell in January, February and March. The refreshment committee was Mrs. Charles Kaywood, Mrs. Stromberg and Mrs. Gus Mace.

Picnic Social Will Be Held At Cottrell

The Cottrell Community Club will hold a picnic social Saturday, April 1, at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

Purpose of the picnic is to raise funds to send 4-H girls from this area to the summer school in Corvallis.

Progressive Club Fete Is Reported Wrong In Last Thursday's Post

The St. Patrick's Day party, held Friday evening, March 17, in the Kelso Grange hall was given by St. Michael's Progressive club and not by the Kelso Grange as erroneously reported in a headline in the March 23 issue of The Sandy Post.

Local Ladies Honor Recent Bride Wed.

The Sandy Ridge Woman's club combined with five local ladies to honor Shirley Rae Allen, now Mrs. Delbert Wilson, at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday night, March 22, in the Community Church annex. Hostesses were Mrs. Waldo Hicks, Mrs. Don Deming, Mrs. Richard Ilge, Mrs. Marion Foust and Mrs. Lewis Hall.

A program followed the opening of gifts. Mrs. David Bell sang two solos and Mrs. Clara Leum played two piano numbers. Refreshments were served to about 50 guests.

Mrs. E. Vedder Wins I. T. Club Speech Honor

Mrs. Eugene Vedder won first place in the annual speech contest of the Gresham Toastmistress Club, held at the home of Miss Norma Hundley, Gresham, March 22. The title of Mrs. Vedder's winning address was "Man—The Toolmaking Animal." Mrs. Quenten Norquist was the other contestant with a talk entitled "Two Pictures."

Evaluator for the event was Stanley Webb of Portland. Guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Webb, Mrs. K. Larson, Chairman of the Portland Rose club, I. T. C.; Mrs. Ethel Harvey, President of the Oregon Toastmistress Club, Portland; Mrs. Elsie Jones, President of the Portland Rose club, and Hazel Loomis, club representative for this area.

Mrs. Myrtle Lundgren made her second visit and will be inducted at the April 12 meeting to be held in Gresham at the home of Miss Norma Hundley. Mrs. Eugene Vedder, as winner of the local club contest, will go to the area speech contest on April 18 at the Portland Oregonian Hostess House. If she wins there she will go to council finals to be held April 30 at the Centre in Gresham.

Northwest winners at the regional meet in Seattle, May 20, will go to International finals in Pasadena this summer.

Spring Decorations

The upstairs room of the hall was decorated with a spring motif of daffodils and pussy willows. The long table downstairs was done in pink and white carried out with crepe paper and pink candles.
