U. of O. Awards For Three Pupils

Three Sandy Union high seniors received outstanding awards this week from the University of Oregon for their work in high school journalism.

Cecil Wilder received the Eric W. Allen Certificate of Newspaper Service for his ability as Sandy High Post sports editor. Nancy Dove also received the Eric Allen Certificate of Newspaper Service for her work as Sandy High Post editor.

Bob Hewitt received the George S. Turnbull Certificate of Yearbook Service for his work as our annual yearbook editor.

Sponsoring these awards was the first Dean and Director of Journalism in the University of Oregon and George Turnbull, the second Dean and Director.

The awards were signed by Clifford F. Weigle, present Dean and Director of Journalism and Laurence Campbell, O.S.P. Executive Secretary.

Math Class Tapes Track Field Friday

Henry Pete's second year algebra class completed a two-day project of marking the length and width of the Sandy high track field, Friday, April 8.

The class submitted several plans. The one used has a running track of six laps to a mile, making the track 293 1/4 yards long. It starts and finishes in front of the grandstand.

Mr. Pete stated, "It gave the students a chance to apply what they had learned in the classroom on an actual project. The results were very successful."

AN OPEN LETTER

By Conrad Hassel

Are you weakening the good citizenship of our high school students?

You will probably be startled at that question but have you ever been guilty of condemning all teen age drivers because of the mistakes of one? Or have you ever dubbed all high school students as scatterbrained because of the silly mistake of one?

You might not realize it but all these things contribute to weakening the citizenship of our high school students who will be the future leaders of this country.

You must realize that our high schools are changing and we do learn things, you know. Why did we have a depression back in '33? Why did the League of Nations fail after the first world war? How can we improve our present system of electing a president? The answers to these kind of questions will help us prevent wars and depressions in future years.

If you who are the teen age critics in the community will realize that the movie version of the cigarette smoking high school student is only one side of the picture it will greatly encourage the work that is being done to make us better citizens and leaders.

How many times have you heard some critic saying, "Now when I was a boy we would never think of doing some of the things those kids do nowadays?"

These are the people who need to be corrected. As we look at the world today we do not see a perfect picture of peace and tranquility. Rather we see many unsolved problems that we must try to solve in the future.

Before you criticize the next teen-ager think of this. What you make out of us is what we make out of the world.

Junior C Of C Leads Student Day

When asked if she thought J. C. C. leadership on Student Administration day was a success, Dyanne Kahny, office secretary of Sandy High replied, "I thought they did a very fine job!"

Charles Croston, principal of Sandy High, was also enthusiastic when he addressed the student body at an assembly at the end of S.A.D., Tuesday, March 22. He stated that most of the students cooperated very well.

THE SNOOPER

By Conrad Hassel

As I sit here dabbling playfully with the typewriter and watching the sun stream through the fly-specked windows of the journalism room here at Sandy high, I am convinced that spring has finally laid its green and flowery carpet on our Oregon. Unlike some nature lovers I do not feel the urge to go dashing over hill and dale uprooting daisies and violets or any other member of the flora family. I, on the contrary, would rather crawl into my oldest pair of overalls wander down to my favorite fishing hole and make like a modern day Rip Van Winkle.

Here at Sandy high spring is talked about in more or less a general manner. You can hear the students talking about the flowers and the birds. You may also notice the coming of spring by the yawns of some students who are mortally afflicted with spring fever.

The things I am about to relate now I think herald the coming of spring as much as the first robin.

In the spring almost unnoticeable the lusty cheers for our home team in the gym changes to the sharp shout of the umpire in a baseball game. The water fountain starts flowing again free from its enemies of ice and snow. Did you ever notice how the girls seem to be a little extra in the spring while they're trying to wangle a date for the Prom? The way I see it is in the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts that the girls have been thinking all year.

Puppet Play Given At Assembly Thurs.

Dr. and Mrs. Bushe presented a program of marionettes in a national assembly at Sandy high on April 13.

They had puppets from all over the world, including historical puppets that appeared in the famous Barnum Museum of New York City in 1852 and one puppet that was 300 years old. The Bushes have been featured performers on the Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey circus many times and have appeared in several movies, and quite recently in television broadcasts.

A short assembly will also be presented to the Sandy high student body sometime this week by the public speaking class.

The assembly will include a one-act play and a selection of musical numbers.

Theme Is Chosen For Annual Jr.-Sr. Prom

"Stardust" has been chosen as the theme for the 1950 Junior and Senior Prom.

The annual spring formal will be presented by the junior class in the high school auditorium Friday, May 5.

The theme was picked by a committee composed of Joan Schnepf, who acted as chairman; Dolores Mills, class president; Wayne Frederickson, vice president; Leo Weisdorffer, treasurer and Alan Straw.

CLASS ACTIVITIES

Students in Mt. Teters' social economics class are beginning to teach each other. Committees have been set up to give panel discussions on such subjects as racial cooperation and law enforcement.

The first subject to be given will be government finance. Members of this committee are Earl Page, Cecil Newman and Roger Bartholomew.

This will continue until the close of the school year. Students will grade the student teachers and committees will grade the students when tests are given.

Mrs. Averill's social economics class elects a representative to sit in on Mr. Teters' class. Patty Malone is now representing Mrs. Averill's class and Gloria Minyard is the alternate.

Mrs. Holmes' girls' physical education classes have been playing basketball during noon periods. Each class has one or more teams. According to Diane Wolfe there are three more games to be played before the finals.

Girls in the second period physical education class played a joke on Mrs. Holmes by hiding the second semester motor fitness tests. Mrs. Holmes laughed and made the girls do calisthenics all period. They had to run around the gym six times before they could take showers.

Mr. Pete's third period algebra class spent their class time last week marking off distances for the track squad.

Miss Trojan's typing classes have typed several times this year to musical records. Miss Trojan stated that it helped students to type with rhythm.

Miss Trojan's students in shorthand took their first five minute timed writings last week. Most of the girls passed at 30 words a minute. Next week Miss Trojan will give 80 word timed writings.

Vermont has voted Republican since 1860.

The first scheduled radio broadcast in history was on November 2, 1920, over KDKA, Pittsburgh.

Mountain Grange To Host Sandy Club Saturday, April 15

By Mrs. Alice Hickey

BRIGHTWOOD — A special meeting was held by the Mountain Grange last Saturday evening when Lucile Tobey, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Muldoon and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lauzon were given the third and fourth degree.

At 7 o'clock Thursday, April 13, Mountain Grangers met for song rehearsal, square dance practice and a get-together for old and new members.

Visitation of Sandy Grange is scheduled for next Saturday evening, April 15, by Mountain Grangers at Sleepy Hollow hall. It will be a social meeting and members' friends are invited. Mr. Hickman will show pictures on different angles of forestry and the ladies are planning refreshments.

Mrs. Pete Duman, who recently returned from McNary Dam, tells us Pete will return very soon to resume work in the area. Mr. Duman started work on the dam the first of the year. After an illness which kept her in bed for a few days, Mrs. C. G. Payne is up and around again.

Brightwood folks have a home bakery in their midst. Mrs. Kempster is owner of the Suzanne Bake Shop.

Easter services at the Chapel of the Hills were widely attended by Brightwood folks. Every available seat was taken with many standing. A picture of the Crucifixion was shown Sunday evening.

As there was no school in Portland last week, many summer home owners were out to see just what damage the heavy snows did to their property.

Bobby Miller, who spent a week in a Portland hospital to overcome an attack of virus pneumonia, is well enough to be about, and is recuperating at a home near Seaside.

Mr. and Mrs. Aufrane and son, Dennis, of Klamath Falls spent Easter vacation at the home of Mrs. Aufrane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Les Cole.

Mrs. Hugh Jarvis motored from Boise, Idaho, for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hoskins.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams had as Easter dinner guests, Mrs. Wymore, Mrs. William's mother, and her sister, Mrs. Buxton. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Britton also were present.

New Sawmill To Be Built At Aims Soon

By Mrs. Tom Paul

AIMS—A party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lawson last Saturday evening was attended by several friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Bear were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Lawson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Bear have sold their timber to a party who is putting in a saw mill on the place.
