Television Show Is Given By Speech Class At Assembly

The Sandy high public speaking class presented an assembly to the student body Monday, April 17.

The assembly took the form of a television show. Phyllis and Bob Hewitt played the saxophone and piano. Two commercials were read by Edna Willis, Ernest Snow and Frank Willis.

Al Jolson was imitated by Conrad Hassel and a one-act play was presented by Wally Wesselink, Roy McDonald, Dick Snow, Lydia Jadrny, Nancy Dove, Bob May and Jim Martin.

Bob Keck was the announcer for the program.

Wrestling and basketball letters were presented to the teams at the end of the assembly.

State Schools Host To Sandy Students

Representation of the senior class from Sandy high school was equal to the two major colleges in Oregon during their campus weekend with seven seniors going to Oregon State and seven to the University of Oregon.

This annual campus weekend is held to familiarize high school seniors with the college campuses and their activities.

Demonstrations were held in all the classes and professors and teachers were on hand to answer questions and give explanations.

There were several dances, talent shows and comedy basketball games, to entertain the visiting seniors.

Fifty Seniors Attend College Career Meet

Approximately 50 seniors from Sandy high attended a senior career day at Estacada Union high school April 11.

Thirteen private or independent colleges of Oregon were represented at the Career Day as well as representatives from the army, navy, marines and WAC.

The day was divided into six sessions with each session about 30 minutes long. Each college representative answered the questions of seniors who wished to hear the merits of that particular college.

The representatives lay special emphasis on cost of tuition, entrance requirements and curriculum.

The Sandy seniors were transported to and from Estacada by bus, driven by Ralph Teters, faculty member of SUHS.

THE SNOOPER

By Conrad Hassel

Things are getting pretty colorful here at Sandy high and I mean from the waist down. Yes, Print and Cord week officially started this week and after the students of Sandy took their boyish unexperienced hands to dyeing their own cords it looks like the Mardi Gras moved west.

Some of the boys used a conservative kelly green or purple but it really looks like the circus has come to town when one leg is dyed baby pink and the other black. Pink and orange are common but red is out of style this year. I wonder if it has anything to do with Senator McCarthy?

Something quite spectacular happened last Friday when Sandy's down-trodden nine was in the field against the Canby Cougars. The rain was coming down in a steady stream, the count was two for a Canby batter on the last pitch. The batter cut loose with a high fly over right field.

Don Gomoll, right fielder, tore after the ball but the field was somewhat mushy and he hadn't gone more than a dozen steps before he was flat on his face. A moan went up from the crowd.

In a flash he was back on his feet, trying to achieve the impossible by getting under the fast dropping ball. In one final lunge, not a second too soon, he had the ball in his mitt, inches off the ground.

The buttons are really popping around here today because last Monday the Sandy nine came home victorious from Gresham after kicking them in the pants to the tune of 8 to 3. Gresham is Sandy's ancient rival.

Bob also received a certificate early last week.

Juniors Dump Seniors In Girls' Basketball

The final game in the girls intramural basketball tournament was held Thursday evening, April 13, after school. The play-off was between Dolores Senff's junior team and Gloria Minyard's senior team.

At the end of the first half the score was 13-4 in favor of the seniors. Lyly Swails, senior forward, made all 13 points.

Guard positions were changed on the junior team so that Joan Schnepf was guarding Lyly. After the change Lyly scored only two more points.

At the end of the game scorekeepers Sharon Frost and Billie Brauer disagreed about the score. It was ironed out and the juniors were the victors by a score of 19-18.

Mrs. Holmes, physical education instructor, refereed the game.

Three contestants from Sandy high school each received a two rating at the band contest held in Gresham Saturday, April 15. They are: Mary Ann Sansom, playing the baritone saxophone; George Hale, playing the sousaphone, and Eddie Hall, playing the cornet.

"The band as a whole did nicely, considering it was inexperienced," commented Elgin Burns, director of Sandy high's band.

Sandy high's mixed choir, advanced choir and junior girls' choir, under Director Elgin Burns, are entering the band contest at Gresham Saturday, April 22.

There will be approximately 10 schools entering the contest, which will last all day.

Nine girls are entering in the solo division. They are: Joyce Wetherald, Joyce Reed, Joyce Malone, Maridene Crone, Maurine O'Brien, Beverley Foley, Sharon Wheeler and Cecile Marlier.

Two triple trios from girls' choir and a trio and sextet from the mixed choir are entering their respective divisions.

Sandy Pioneers Hit Gresham Hard

By Cecil Wilder

The hapless Sandy Pioneers finally came out of their two game losing streak Tuesday afternoon by slapping the Gresham Golden Gophers 8-2 on the Gopher diamond.

Big portsideer Jim Martin was Coach Rannow's choice for mound chores and it proved to be the right one, as Martin held the Greshamites to five hits, struck out eight and walked four.

Sandy batsmen nipped three Gopher hurlers for eight hits. The Gresham pitchers were responsible for a good part of Sandy's eight runs.

In the first inning the Gresham chucker walked four men in a row to force one run across the plate. He hit the next batter with an inside curve that got away from him.

Sandy added three more runs to their efforts in the top of the third inning, two in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Winning pitcher was Martin; losing pitcher, Smiltz.

From The Sidelines

By Cecil Wilder

The Sandy Pioneers hit the victory trail at last by dumping Gresham's Golden Gophers 8-2 last Tuesday on the Gopher diamond.

I would say that it was undoubtedly Sandy's best game to date.

Jim Martin, Sandy's one and only left hander, who hasn't had much on the ball thus far this season pitched as good a ball game as could be wished for of any pitcher.

His curve ball was breaking right and he didn't have much trouble winding the corners. The Gresham stickmen couldn't do much with Martin's offerings.

The smelling salts and liniment will be in order for the intramural boys' track meet to be held at 2 o'clock on Thursday.

Two representatives from each class will be allowed to participate in each division of the event that pits class against class for the championship.

As things stand now the girls' intramural basketball season came to a close last Thursday when Dolores Senff's junior quintet downed Gloria Minyard's senior aggregation.

However, it's rumored that due to a mixup on the part of the score keepers the game may have to be played over.

It seems that the score keepers can't come to an agreement. Consequently nobody knows for sure who did win.
