Lady Of The Week—

Plant A Flower, Plant A Shrub, Make City Pretty By June

This week we're saluting a whole group of ladies—the Sandy Woman's club. The ladies want to make Sandy not only a more progressive town but one lovely to look at as well.

That—even for such an enterprising group—is a tall order. It calls for more help outside the club group. That means almost every resident and businesswoman in town.

Ladies Begin Work

According to committee chairman, Mrs. Ivan Barker, the ladies will set an example to start the ball rolling—or the paint brushes to wielding. Ladies of the club will plant shrubs and greenery around their clubhouse and will fill window boxes with the brightest geraniums and petunias available.

"This is not just a clean-up campaign," Mrs. Barker said. "We want to go farther than that. Naturally, there'll have to be cleaning up before planting can be done."

What the ladies would like to see is for each merchant and resident to plant window boxes, inside or out, and in the back lots, where there's usually an accumulation of junk, a scattering of flower seeds which will mean bright color all summer.

Tourist Attraction

With flowers blooming along store fronts on Main street and the back lots facing the Loop highway bright with blossoms, Sandy would immediately become the stellar town along the route to the Mountain. People would undoubtedly stop—first from curiosity and then to admire.

"Some merchants," Mrs. Barker said, "are afraid that store front window boxes would be an invitation to sit. Well, maybe a few strategically placed cacti would be insurance against that."

Now that Sandy women are taking town beautification to heart it's time the men began to follow suit. If the supposedly helpless sex can bang up window boxes, fill them with flowers and grub around in the dirt planting shrubs to pretty up their own special building—it should make any red-blooded man ashamed that he's not capable of doing the same.

Festival Deadline

"A more beautiful Sandy by Strawberry Festival time," is the slogan for the beautification plan of the Sandy Woman's club.

That makes the month of May "Plant a Flower Box Time." A few hours after work for a week or two should see Sandy made both colorful and neat. Tourists, used to dashing through small towns as fast as speed limits allow, will do a double take and stop.

The special "Beautify Sandy" committee of the Sandy Woman's club contains the following members: Mrs. R. S. Bunnell, Mrs. F. M. Foreman, Mrs. Jack Idleman and Mrs. Ivan Barker.

Rebekahs Will Be Honored

The Rebekah Decoration of Chivalry will be conferred on Mrs. Robert Smith and Mrs. George Miller, Sandy Lodge 193, at the Grand Lodge of IOOF and Rebekahs convention in Astoria, May 15. The decoration was granted by Canton Number 1 of Patriarch Militant, IOOF.

The Decoration of Chivalry is an honorary award conferred upon "one who has attained honorable distinction in our order through service of love, devotion and good works in the line of Odd Fellowship." The Grand Lodge will be held May 15 to 18.

Delegate from Sandy Rebekah is Mrs. Adolph Kotzman, besides the two members to be honored, and Mrs. Roy Colson. Members of Sandy IOOF who will attend are Frank Rehberg, Arthur Baumbach and George Miller.

District And State Officers Visit At Legion Post Friday

Thirty visitors from Corbett and Estacada posts visited Sandy American Legion Post 127, Friday night, April 21. About 50 members were present from all three groups.

Gertrude DeMacon, District 9 president, and Mrs. Alta Van Ausdell, Community chairman for the state were honored guests at the social night. Refreshments were served.

Sandy Winner Will Enter Council Meet At Center Sunday

Mrs. Shirley Vedder, winner of the area speech contest of International Toastmistress club in Portland last Tuesday, will represent Gresham chapter in the council speech contest in the Gresham Center, Sunday, April 30. She will give her winning speech, "Man—The Toolmaking Animal," competing with two other speakers from council Number 6.

Winner of the council speech contest will go to the regional meet to be held in Seattle, May 20. The national contest is held in Pasadena in mid-summer.

Clubs represented in the contest are: Gresham, Oregon City, Portland Rose, Beaver, Argus, Sacajiwia, Neah-kah-nie, Seaside, Hillsboro and Tillamook. Presiding will be council officers headed by Mildred Ringo, council chairman.

The public is invited to attend the contest and dinner, which will begin at 1 p.m., Pacific Daylight Saving Time. Those wishing to attend are asked to contact Mrs. Quenten Norquist, reservations chairman, by April 28.

Former Sandy Teacher Wed In Gresham

Miss Mary Jane Lauderback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Lauderback, Gresham, was married to Dean Bredenkamp, Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Bredenkamp, Corvallis, in the Gresham Trinity Lutheran church at 8 o'clock Friday evening, April 14. The Reverend Carl A. V. Lund performed the ceremony before the immediate families of the bride and groom.

Soloist was Dr. J. G. Sture, Gresham. The church was decorated with candelabra, lilies and white stock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of grey nylon with full overskirt, matching hat and grey accessories. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid and streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. David Bell, sister of the bride, in a navy blue afternoon dress with white accessories and bouquet of pink roses and streamers.

Elizabeth Beebe was candlelighter. King Lauderback, brother of the bride, was best man. A reception was held at the home of the bride for the two families. Mrs. King Lauderback cut the wedding cake.

For her wedding trip to Long Beach, California, the bride chose a navy blue dress with a pink topcoat and grey accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Bredenkamp will be at home in Gresham after April 25.

The bride is a graduate of Gresham high school, class of 1943, and of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, class of 1946. She taught at Coos Bay and Sandy grade school from 1947 to 1949. Mr. Bredenkamp attended high school in Nebraska and graduated from Oregon State College. He is now taking a business course in Portland.

Newlywed Couple Feted By Parents

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Murray, 165 Hood, Sandy, will hold open house Sunday afternoon, April 30, from 2 to 4. The reception will honor Mr. and Mrs. James William Scott, the former Patricia Murray, who were married Saturday, April 15, in the Gresham Methodist church.

All friends of the couple are invited. Wedding gifts will be on display and Mr. and Mrs. Scott will be there to greet their friends. They returned April 24 from a wedding trip to Reno and Las Vegas.

National Costumes To Garb Servers At B.P.W. Smorgasbord

Swedish embroidered aprons and caps will be worn by members of the Sandy Business and Professional Women's club when they serve at their annual Smorgasbord Saturday, April 29, from 6 to 8 p.m. Traditional smorgasbord tid-bits will be the feature of the meal, held in the Masonic hall.

The ladies wearing the costumes are: Mrs. Helen Loundree, Mrs. Alice Ackers, Mrs. Margaret Hillyard, Mrs. Freda Olson and Mrs. Edna Gunderson.

Profits from the dinner are used for the club's annual scholarship offered to a Sandy high school girl desiring to attend business college. High school officials will select the student.
