B.P.W. Scholarship Goes To Boring Graduate

Winner of the annual Business and Professional Women's club scholarship this year is Gloria Johnson, Boring, who will graduate from Sandy Union high school May 25.

The Sandy business club builds its fund with the annual smorgasbord dinner held this year on April 29. The $50 scholarship is offered to any worthy Sandy high school girl who desires to attend business school. Principal Charles Croston made the selection.

Miss Johnson plans to attend Northwestern business school in Portland this fall in preparation for a secretarial career.

She is 17 years old and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Johnson. She is staying at the Andrew Warner home in Boring.

Miss Johnson was a four-year member of the Future Homemakers of America, and the Girls' Athletic Association. She also belonged to the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Girls' League.

Eagle Creek Grange Slates Card Party

Pinochle and 500 will be featured at a card party slated for Saturday night, May 27, at 8 p.m., in the Eagle Creek Grange hall. The grange Home Economics club is sponsor. Refreshments will be served.

Sandy Girl Scouts Hike Up Mountain, Visit Ranger Station

Troop 1, Sandy Girl Scouts, with their leader Mrs. Patty Chilton, made a hike Saturday, May 20, up Hunchback Mountain near Zig Zag. In the afternoon they were guests of the Mt. Hood Forest Rangers at the ranger station in Zig Zag where they were shown through the station by the dispatcher.

The girls learned about the switchboard, the plotting board, which locates fires and investigated the fire fighting equipment. On the mountain hike they identified wild flowers.

Roots were gathered from which Mrs. Chilton taught the girls to weave baskets. Lunch was eaten on the trail.

Girls traveled in three cars driven by Mrs. Chilton; the assistant leader and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Bennett, and the father of one of the girls, Mr. Polivka. Girl Scouts on the hike were: Donna and Francis Biglow, Sally Lane, Nora Chilton, Mary Andresen, Mary Seidel, Lucille Rogers, Kathy McLean, Janet and Jenean Mills, Sondra Dorman, Janet Polivka, Carol Duncan and Jayne Alice Miller.

Couple Feted In Mock Rites

A mock wedding ceremony highlighted the thirty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Albert N. Voorhees, Star Route, Sandy, on Sunday, May 21. Over a hundred friends and relatives were present at the party held in the Carl Arbour summer home 10 miles north of Vancouver, Washington.

Frank Voorhees, brother of the groom, acted as minister. Mrs. Charles Voorhees was soloist.

The bride wore a shoulder length tea towel veil and carried a bouquet of carrots with rhododendron corsage. Michael Voorhees, nephew of the groom was flower girl, with a sifter of flour.

Bridesmaid was Roy Voorhees, eldest son of the bride, carrying a bouquet of parsley. Ring-bearer was Jack Voorhees with a cowbell on a velvet cushion.

After the ceremony, bride and groom were led to a table of wedding gifts. An electric range was presented to the Voorhees by their children and friends.

Four generations were represented at the anniversary party, including Mrs. Voorhees mother, sisters and brothers of the couple, children and grandchildren. Two sons, Roy and Robert, live in Sandy; one daughter, Mrs. Violet Shockley, lives in Eugene and the other, Mrs. Helen Mae Williams is in Gresham.

Guests from Sandy were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nicholson; Mrs. Eva Pierce; Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Anderson and daughter, Delphine; Mr. and Mrs. Will Ford; Mr. and Mrs. Scot Ferguson; Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Hathorn with Donna and George.

Local Talent Show Is Slated For Friday Eve

A variety show, featuring local talent, is sponsored by the Home Economics club of the Sandy grange to be held in the grange hall at Kelso, Friday evening, May 26, at 8 p.m. Admission is free.

A cafeteria lunch will be served after the show.

To Wed June 3

Miss Patricia Lucille Workinger, daughter of Mrs. Roy Workinger, Sandy, will be married to Lloyd Harold Kincade, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kincade, Menominee, Wisconsin, June 3 at 8 p.m. in the Chapel of the Hills.

Officers Installed At Final Firwood Extension Meeting

Firwood Extension Unit held its final meeting for the year at the home of Mrs. A. C. Lamb, Tuesday May 9. Miss Janet Taylor, county home extension agent, presented the lesson on wall finishes.

Newly elected officers installed at the meeting are: Mrs. Larry Armstrong, chairman; Mrs. Andy Reckman, vice-chairman; Mrs. Lee Howton, secretary; Mrs. William Blake, treasurer. Installing officer was Mrs. E. E. Anderson, retiring chairman.

A 'get-well' card was signed by all members to be sent to Mrs. LeRoy Lamb. Mrs. Lamb is a member who has been ill in the Portland Sanitarium for the past three weeks.

After the regular meeting a stork shower was given for Mrs. Lester Thorpe who received many gifts from her fellow members. Twenty-two members and a guest were present.
