Bride's Grandfather Reads Vows At Wheeler-Olson Rites

With her grandfather performing part of the ceremony, Miss Marilyn Sue Wheeler was married to Glen E. Olson at 4 p.m. Sunday afternoon, June 4, in the Chapel of the Hills, Cherryville. The Reverend E. R. Leedom, grandfather of the bride, and the Reverend Thyra E. Funk read the double ring vows in a setting of white and purple lilac and dogwood.

Miss Wheeler was given in marriage by her father, Merton S. Wheeler, Sandy. Her bridal gown was white satin with a boat neckline, a flesh-colored chiffon yoke and pearl and crystal beading on the bodice center. The long full skirt ended in a train; sleeves were long and tight. She wore a coronet of pearl beads holding a fingertip veil of nylon net. Her bouquet was white roses with long streamers, centered with a white orchid.

Good Luck Gown

The wedding gown was lent as a gift to Marilyn by Mrs. Theodore Mudrow, Jr., a recent bride. An old tradition was followed, that a wedding dress lent to a new bride will bring good luck to both.

Maid of honor was Miss Sharon Wheeler, sister of the bride, in orchid taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Cleo Olson in yellow taffeta and Miss Marlene Motejl in turquoise. All three girls carried streamer bouquets.

Candlelighters were the Misses Dyanm Khany and Garnet Rohde in pink net and blue satin. Barbara Croston, wearing yellow taffeta, was flower girl and ringbearers were Chuckie Croston and Mickey Motejl.

Jim Dyal was best man and ushers were Arthur Nicholson and Arthur Snook, Jr.

Mrs. Merton Wheeler, mother of the bride, wore formal length turquoise jersey with shoulder corsage. Mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Goodwin R. Olson, wore a print ensemble and corsage.

Reception At Chapel

Over 275 guests were present at the ceremony and the reception which followed in the assembly room of the chapel. Mrs. Charles D. Croston poured assisted by Mrs. Cornelius Rohde and Mrs. Arthur Snook, Jr., Mrs. Otto Motejl cut the wedding cake and Miss Dyanm Kahny passed the guest book.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Leona Leedom, Berkeley, California, aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brosterhous, Portland.

For her going away costume, Marilyn wore a royal blue suit and white accessories, with the white orchid from her wedding bouquet. The young couple left immediately for Tillamook, where the groom is employed.

The new Mrs. Olson is a 1949 graduate of Sandy high school. She was the first girl chosen queen of the junior-senior prom when the tradition was begun in 1949. Since her graduation she has been employed by the C. O. Duke insurance agency.

Mr. Olson is a 1948 graduate of Sandy high school. He is an active member of the Oregon National Guard and was sent to the Aberdeen, Maryland, Proving Grounds last year for specialized training. He was a 4-H leader in Monmouth a year ago.

SUHS Teacher Wed May 24 In Portland

Miss Jean Trojan, business course instructor at Sandy high school for the past three years, was married May 24 to Robert Dean Smith of San Francisco, California. The Reverend John E. Ransom officiated at the ceremony in the Westminster Presbyterian church, Portland.

Given in marriage by her father, Adolph C. Trojan, the bride wore a period gown of ivory satin and lace. Her bonnet was shirred net and sprays of orange blossoms holding an illusion veil. She carried a prayer book with a spray of white orchids.

Maid of honor was Miss Lucille Swint in a white embroidered organdy dress over apple green taffeta with matching hat, carrying a nosegay of roses and yellow daisies.

The bride's other attendants were Mrs. Donald Miller, Miss Mildred Molin and Miss Janet Swint, who wore frocks similar to the maid of honor's, carrying similar bouquets.

Robert Batty was ring bearer. Jack Smith was best man and ushers were Donald Miller, Alvin Webb and Everett Veibel.

After a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in San Francisco where Mr. Smith is employed.

Pat Workinger Married In Sat. Evening Rites

In a quiet but pretty ceremony at 8 p. m. Saturday evening, June 3, in the Chapel of the Hills, Miss Patricia Lucille Workinger was married to Lloyd Harold Kincade. The Reverend Thyra Funk performed the ceremony in a candlelit setting of ivy, fern and hothouse flowers.

Patricia was given in marriage by her uncle, Gilbert Workinger. The bride wore a navy suit with red accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Miss Myrlyn McDonald was maid of honor in a dubonnet suit with dove grey accessories and corsage of yellow roses. Her twin sister, Maxine, was bridesmaid in a rose suit, white accessories and yellow rose corsage.

Best man was Charles Hickey and Lester Workinger was usher. Mr. Hickey and Kingsley Stone lighted the candles.

Mrs. Roy Workinger, Sandy, mother of the bride, wore a french blue crepe gown with corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Elmer Hansen played the piano and chimes, before the ceremony as well as for the wedding march. Miss Joyce Wetherald, soprano, sang "Ave Maria," and "I Love You."

A reception was held in the church parlors after the ceremony with Dave Workinger, brother of the bride, pouring. He was assisted by Miss Bonnie Horrtor.

Mr. and Mrs. Kincade will make their home at Welches. The bride is a graduate of Sandy high school, class of 1949. Mr. Kincade attended schools in Green Bay, Wisconsin. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kincade of Menominee, Wisconsin.
