Rake Heavy Crops Efficiently

with a Dependable JOHN DEERE
"WHEEL-AND-REEL-IN-LINE" RAKE

Here's the answer to more efficient raking of beans, heavy vine crops, and alfalfa grown on land bordered for irrigation. It's the dependable John Deere "Wheel-and-reel-in-line" Side-Delivery Rake.

Here are three important advantages it gives you. First—the adjustable front-wheel tread permits spacing to fit rows. Second—increased spacing between the left front wheel and reel provides extra clearance and prevents clogging. Third—the reel extension permits varying the length of the reel for effective work in rows spaced 24 to 36 inches.

Add to these—quick-detachable curved teeth, floating four-bar reel, inclined frame, enclosed gears and other features that have made John Deere Side-Delivery Rakes famous. You'll agree that it's the ideal rake for your farm. See us for complete information the next time you're in town.
