Sandy Couple United In Quiet Rites Saturday Eve

A double ring ceremony, performed the evening of July 7, at 8 p.m., united in marriage Miss Betty Jean Searls, Boring, and Lyle Clifford Olson, Sandy.

Given in marriage by her father, Jean Searls, the bride wore a navy blue suit with beige accessories and corsage of orchid-centered sweetpeas.

Mrs. David Bell, was vocal soloist and Mrs. Ruth Leum played the wedding music.

Mrs. Alfred Seematter was honor attendant for her sister, wearing a brown suit with white accessories and carrying a nosegay of summer blossoms.

Janet and Joe Collins, small niece and nephew of the bride, were candlelighters.

Kenneth Flath, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man with Alfred Seematter as the second attendant.

A reception was held after the ceremony, in the Women's Club hall, attended by about 100 guests.

Miss Searls is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Searls, Boring; Mr. Olson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Olson, Sandy.

On Friday evening, July 14, Mrs. Carlson and Tony will be guests of honor at an open house in their home.

Sandy City Librarian Announces List of New Books Now On Shelves

With funds allotted by the Sandy City Council, the Sandy library board has purchased new books, which are now ready for circulation, according to librarian, Mrs. Ada Arnett.

Some of the titles listed are: The Way West, A. B. Guthrie, Jr., Pulitzer prize novel; Each Bright River, Mildred M. McNeilly, a novel of Oregon country; Jubilee Trail, Gwen Bristow, a story of early California; I Leap Over The Wall, Monica Baldwin; Cheaper By The Dozen, Gilbreth and Carey, now in its 24th printing; Room For One More, Anna Perrott Rose; Reluctant Farmer, Elswyth Thane. "Them Was The Days," the latest novel by Martha Ferguson McKeown, Oregon writer; Phunology, a book of games and entertainment, compiled by E. O. Harbin, are included.

For teeners, new books include Teen-Age Adventure Stories by Charles Coomby and Teen-Age Stories of the West by Stephen Payne, action stories with stress upon character building.

There are many other books of all age groups among the 23 newly purchased and added to the shelves, Mrs. Arnett said. Sandy's public library is located in the basement of the Woman's Club building and is open Thursdays and Fridays from 2 to 5 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Jonsrud is chairman of the library board and Mrs. Lewis Hall is secretary-treasurer.
