American Mother For 1950 Talks At Grange Meet

By Mrs. H. M. Mason

EAGLE CREEK—A class of 20 was initiated into the fifth degree (Pomona) July 12 at Colton-Foothills grange.

Prior to initiation a surprise for the lecturer's program was enjoyed when the National American mother, Mrs. Roe Cloud, West Linn, spoke for one hour on her experiences since being so honored. Following her talk, Attorney Jim Collins, of Portland, explained briefly the balanced legislature program for voters.

After the initiation, the newly elected state master, Elmer McClure, spoke to those assembled. Ray Gill talked on the status of Grange Co-Op in the state. Mrs. Benson, master of Marion County Grange, spoke briefly about the progress of the work in that county.

The October gathering will be held at Springwater.
