Bridal Shower Honors Miss Schmitz On Tuesday Evening

Mrs. R. S. Bunnell, Mrs. Alfred Meinig and Mrs. Clark Howard were hostesses for a surprise bridal shower in honor of Miss Lucile Schmitz held in the annex of the Sandy Community church on Tuesday, July 25, at 8 p.m. Over 75 guests attended.

A bower of flowers was the decorative theme with baskets of roses, gladioli and phlox and runners of pink rambler roses placed on the buffet tables. After the opening of gifts, refreshments of cake, fruit cocktail, coffee and punch were served.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmitz, Lucile will be married to Dean Schneider, son of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Schneider, August 27 in St. Michael's Catholic church, Sandy. Their engagement was announced early this spring. Both are graduates of Sandy Union high school, Lucile in 1947 and Dean in 1944.

Out-of-town guests attending the shower were: Mrs. Lester Clinefelter, Oswego; Mrs. Tommy Shaw, Fairview; Mrs. J. E. Swanson and Mrs. B. L. Wolff, Portland; Mrs. Don Welles, Modesto, California; Mrs. O. G. Welles, Independence; Mrs. E. McPherson, Mrs. R. G. Schneider and Mrs. C. G. Schneider, of Gresham.

Sandy Lady Visits At Summer Home; Meets Officials

Miss Mary Mitchell, Sandy, was a guest Sunday, July 23, of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clostermann and daughter, Ruth, Portland, at the summer home of a friend on the Salmon River. Other guests included four visiting officials from West Germany being entertained by the Clostermanns.

The gentlemen, guests of the United States government were: Joseph Kremser, Kassel; Gustav Lehner, Bayreuth, both councilmen; a State department guest, Siegfried Perzmeier, Ingolstadt, and the mayor of Bad Reichenhall, Walter Neumayer.

Women's Ed Confused By Wedding Excitement

Bedazzled by the season's umpteenth bride, The Sandy Post's Women's Editor struggled to find a new way to say, "the bride was beautiful in a gown..." and got confused on more important details.

Getting the story piecemeal from the two new mothers-in-law for the Elmer Teuscher wedding in last week's Sandy Post, the Women's Ed forgot to check closely on the name of the bride. It was reported that Mr. Teuscher, Cherryville, had married Miss Maxine Austin, Portland.

Sunday Mrs. L. H. Austin, the bride's mother, called to say her daughter's name was Maxine Ellen Schewbert.

Our face is blushing bridal pink but now we have apologized and the new Mrs. Elmer Teuscher is still a beautiful bride. That we got right.

Children Have Psychological, Social Needs, Georgian Tells Kiwanis

"Our children are not inherently good, nor naturally bad—nor are they just immature adults. They're children, and they have special problems and we, as parents, must give them special considerations," Dr. Karl C. Garrison, professor of educational psychology, University of Georgia, told Kiwanis members and their wives Thursday night.

Friends who visited them last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jubb, Estacada; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Henson and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Scharf of Portland; Mrs. Davies, Santa Monica, California; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Updegrave and Rita of Dover; Mrs. Will Bell, Mrs. David Bell and Tulley, Sandy Ridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Updegrave, Roseburg.

Saturday A.M. Wedding Is Set For Boring Girl

Invitations are in the mail for the wedding of Miss Madeleine Marie Dollowitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dollowitch, Boring, to Loren J. Plumondore, also of Boring, on Saturday, August 12, at 10 a.m. in St. Michael's Catholic Church, Sandy. A reception will be held in the Sandy Grange Hall, Kelso, following the ceremony.

Miss Dollowitch is a 1950 graduate of Sandy Union High School; Mr. Plumondore graduated from the same school in 1948.

Psychological Needs
Dr. Garrison spoke before the Kiwanis club as the climax of a series of two features on the care and development of children.

"Besides the fundamental needs of children for food, clothing and shelter, they have certain psychological needs from their parents. Children need affection, security and a feeling of status from their parents," Dr. Garrison said.

The Georgia professor explained to the Kiwanis members and wives that children also have certain social needs such as the approval of their playmates and personal pride.

Forty-one Kiwanis diners heard the talk. Also visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Walt Hoffman and wives of Kiwanis members. Wednesday night several of the Kiwanis members visited the Woodburn school for boys for an inspection tour and dinner.

Bruns, Rannows Begin Holiday Trip In Hawaii

"I'm going to learn to hula," Ed Bruns promised last Thursday, two days before he left for a month's tour of the Hawaiian Islands.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruns, with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. "Pop" Rannow, left Saturday, July 22, by plane for San Francisco where they took another plane for Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. Rannow plan to celebrate their silver wedding anniversary on August 5 with a dinner in the Royal Hawaiian hotel, Honolulu.

Mr. Bruns, who celebrated his seventy-fifth birthday on June 15, says he has a movie camera and a still camera to catch all the scenic spots.

The first mayor Sandy had, Bruns has lived all his life in Sandy on the original Bruns homestead. He has been a member of the high school board for more than 20 years and has donated land to the high school, the Masonic lodge, and the Saturday Adventist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Rannow were married in Mabery, August 5, 1925. Mr. Rannow has been on the Sandy Union high school faculty for the past 24 years. Both he and Mrs. Rannow have been active in lodge work in Sandy. Mrs. Rannow is a past president of the Sandy Rebekah Past Noble Grand and past president of the Cottrell Community club.

Two Daughters Are Affianced

A double wedding may be in store for the William Kuehn family of Route 3, Boring, this fall. Mr. and Mrs. Kuehn this week announced the engagements of their two daughters, Patricia Marie and Marian Eleanor.

Patricia Marie is engaged to Russell O. Reynolds, Jr., the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell O. Reynolds Sr., of Springfield. Marian Eleanor is engaged to Jack R. Phillips, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Phillips of Rouse 3, Boring. Pat, "Rusty," and Jack are all graduates of Sandy Union high school, the class of 1949. Eleanor is a junior at Sandy. Rusty is now in the United States army, stationed in California.

No dates have been set for the weddings.

Dorcas Society Is Sponsor Of Dinner, Overseas Relief

The Dorcas Society of the Saturday Adventist Church, on July 18, sent eleven boxes, weighing 325 pounds and containing over 300 articles of used clothing, to Watsonville, California to be sent to needy families overseas. Mrs. John Clarambeau, speaking for the society, said that their supply of used clothing was nearly depleted and more would be needed to make up their next regular shipment.

On Sunday, July 23, at 6 p.m., the Dorcas society sponsored a pot luck dinner in the new Dorcas building on University street. After dinner guests visited and played ball until dark. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jacobus, Washougal, Washington, showed scenic slides. Over $25 in donations was received to be used for the Saturday Adventist Church School.
