Toastmistress Holds Picnic Dinner Meet

The Gresham Toastmistress club held a potluck picnic meeting at the Oregon Trail park, Sandy, on Wednesday, August 9. President Mrs. Quentin Norquist, Sandy, was in charge.

Mrs. Ethel Reese gave the invocation. Topicmistress was Mrs. Charles Edwards. Views on the Korean situation were assigned as topics for the Toastmistress extemporaneous dinner talks.

Mrs. Eugene Vedder, Sandy, was toastmistress and Mrs. George Hartwig, Sandy, estimated speech. Mrs. Norquist was evaluator, Mrs. Reese, education reporter and Mrs. Oran Carnony estimated inspiration.

The next regular meeting of the Gresham Toastmistress will be held Wednesday, August 23, at the home of Mrs. Charles Hamilton, Milwaukie.

Morning Ceremony Performed Saturday At St. Michael's

Formal rites united in marriage Miss Madeleine Marie Dollowitch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dollowitch, Boring, and Loren J. Plumondore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Plumondore, Sandy, at 10 a.m. Saturday, August 12, in St. Michael's Catholic church, Sandy. The Reverend Father William Delplanche read the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Robert Tubbs was organist and the children's choir of the church sang. Church decorations were white and salmon gladioli and pink cactus dahlias.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore traditional white satin with sweetheart neckline and train. A crown held in place her fingertip veil of lace and illusion. She carried a shower bouquet of white gladioli and stephanotis and pink rosebuds.

Sister Attends

Mrs. Eugene Boitano, the former Dolores Dollowitch, was her sister's only attendant. She wore an aqua taffeta gown with matching net headpiece and carried a bouquet of pink Esther Reed daisies and ivy.

Francis Plumondore, Coos Bay, was best man for his brother. Altar boys were Bill Dollowitch and Teddy Dupee. Eugene Boitano and Eugene Packard were ushers.

About 100 guests attended the reception held at the Sandy Grange hall in Kelso. Mrs. Joseph Bernard, Willamette, aunt of the bride, poured, assisted by Mrs. Adolph Volpp. Miss Lois Bartlemay passed the guest book and Mrs. Eugene Packard, Mrs. Melvin Collins and Mrs. W. L. Plumondore were in charge of gifts.

Perry Rodenbaugh was in charge of refreshments assisted by Mrs. Rodenbaugh, Mrs. Robert Dupee, Mrs. Ed Koeman and Mrs. Robert Tubbs.

Live In Coos Bay

For her wedding trip to Crater Lake and California, the bride wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories. The couple will be at home in Coos Bay after August 17. Miss Dollowitch is a 1950 graduate of Sandy high school and Mr. Plumondore graduated in 1948 from the same school.

Two grandmothers were present for the wedding: Mrs. Caroline Zimmerman, Portland, grandmother of the bride and Mrs. E. W. Vietsel, Spokane, grandmother of the bridegroom. Other out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Plumondore of Bend.

Cold Food Lecture With OSC Expert In Sandy Saturday

A frozen foods school, conducted by Miss Betty Davis, Home Economist for International Harvester company, will be presented at the Sandy Theatre, on Saturday, August 19 at 2 p.m. Miss Davis will prepare complete meals from the freezer showing how to make meal planning quick and preparation a pleasure. Savings on food, time, work and money will be demonstrated.

Miss Davis, a graduate of Oregon State college, is considered an authority in the field of frozen foods. She will be glad to answer any questions during the meeting, pertaining to the preparation and freezing of all types of food.

Barbecue Slated By The Eastern Star Sunday

The Eastern Star lodge of Sandy will hold a barbecue picnic on Sunday, August 20, at the ranch home of Dee and Gladys Farr, six miles east of Sandy on the Mt. Hood Loop highway.

Members and their families are requested to bring their own bread, rolls and dessert. The picnic will begin at 2 p.m.

The Kelso Woman's Club will hold a picnic on Thursday, August 24th, at the Mt. Scott Park, 72nd and Harold Street, Portland. All members and friends are invited to come.

Boring Couple Is Wed Friday In Vancouver

Miss Marian Eleanor Kuehn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kuehn, Route 3, Boring, was married to Jack R. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phillips, also of Route 3, Boring, at Vancouver, Washington, Friday, August 11, at 2 p.m. The Reverend Kunzman read the single ring ceremony.

The bride wore an aqua suit with white accessories and a gardenia corsage. Miss Patricia Marie Kuehn, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, in an orchid dress with grey accessories and corsage of yellow rosebuds.

Best man was Arthur J. Rust, Jr., Portland.

A reception was held at the bride's home for the immediate families. Miss Patricia Kuehn cut the wedding cake.

After a wedding trip to the coast the couple is at home in Parkrose. The bridegroom is a 1949 graduate of Sandy union high school and the bride is a junior there.

Present at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. William Kuehn, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Phillips; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kuehn, Merle and Linda; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Rust, Jr., and Shirley, brother-in-law and sister of the bride; and Bryan Phillips, brother of the groom.

Thirty Attend Outdoor Art Festival Sunday At Grundtvig School

About 30 people attended the open-air Art Fair and poetry festival at Camp Grundtvig folk school over the weekend of August 12 and 13. A display of prints and oils and oral reading of poetry written by people attending the summer session of the school were features of the program.

Paintings displayed were by Glen Coffield, director of Grundtvig; Dorothy de Coursey, Troutdale, and Don and Betty Emblen, San Diego. Glen Coffield read from his book, "The Night Must Fly," and Harold Howard of Parkdale read two unpublished poems.

The summer session of the school will run until August 26.

Bill Payne, Sandy's Palace Laundry route man, is the father of a seven pound eight ounce baby girl, Linda Diana, who was born Thursday evening, August 10, at Wilcox Memorial, Portland. Bill and his wife, Charlene, have a son, Mike, and another daughter, Janice.
