Schmitz-Schneider Rites Are Read Sunday At St. Michael's

Cream and pink gladioli in tall baskets decorated St. Michael's Catholic church, Sandy, for the Sunday, August 27, wedding of Miss Lucile Mae Schmitz, and Dean Albert Schneider, both of Sandy. The Reverend William J. Delplanche read the double ring ceremony at 2 p.m.

Mrs. Robert Tubbs was organist and the children's choir of St. Michael's sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over four underskirts of white taffeta and ruffled net. A white lace poke bonnet, trimmed in seed pearls, held the fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis and bouvardia centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. David B. Evans, Jr., was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. She wore an orchid taffeta dress with matching poke bonnet, and carried a colonial bouquet.

Sister Attends

Junior bridesmaid was Miss

Shirley Schmitz, sister of the bride. Flower girl was Miss Betty Ruth Shaw, the bride's niece. Both girls wore gowns of yellow taffeta and net, with matching poke bonnets. Shirley carried a colonial bouquet and Betty Ruth carried a basket of blossoms.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Elaine Thompson, and Rita Hashagen, Mrs. Edsel Scheel and Mrs. William Scott. All wore green taffeta gowns with matching poke bonnets and carried colonial bouquets in pastel shades.

Mrs. Frank Schmitz, mother of the bride, wore a gown of blege Chantilly lace with corsage of pink rosebuds and carnations. Mrs. H. A. Schneider, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gray Chantilly lace gown with corsage of red rosebuds and carnations.

Candlelighters were Alford Schmitz and Billy Dollowitch. Harvey Keith Schneider was best man for his brother. Ushers were Edward Schmitz, Ralph Brown, Howard Vaeretti and Charles Crone.

Reception Held

A reception for 150 guests was held at the Masonic hall. Mrs. Thomas Scales poured and Mrs. R. V. Medley had charge of the punch bowl. Their assistants were Mrs. Alfred Gunderson, Mrs. Wally Scales, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Spaller and Mrs. Julius Ruther. Mrs. Ivan Barker cut the wedding cake. In charge of the guest book was Miss Juanita Smith.

For her wedding trip to California, the bride wore a gray suit with dark green accessories and the white orchid from her wedding bouquet. The newlyweds will be at home in Sandy after September 2.

Both the bride and bridegroom were born and lived all their lives in Sandy. The bridegroom, son of Dr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Schneider is a 1944 graduate of Sandy Union high school and served in the navy during World War II. In June he graduated from the automotive school of Multnomah College and is employed as a mechanic at Sandy Union high school. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmitz, is a 1947 graduate of Sandy high school and is employed in the Sandy office of the West Coast Telephone company.
