Shel Elwood Hurt In Wreck; Aged Guest Is Injured

By Nell Howe

WELCHES—Sheldon Ellwood of the Mt. Hood Golf and Country Club was badly shaken up and received a few cuts and bruises and a badly injured knee when an out of state car made a turn without signaling and rammed into Mr. Ellwood's station wagon. The Ellwood car was wrecked.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ferraris have returned to their home at Faubion after several months stay in California.

William Wylie, father of Mrs. William Drips, was injured in a fall while walking on the patio. He was taken to Providence hospital where X-rays show he has a broken pelvis. The accident occurred just a day before his eightieth birthday.

From Donner Grove, Illinois, came the C. R. Johnsons to visit the William Drips at Welches. They plan on returning here to make their home.

Much Scenery, No Fish
Bright and early Tuesday morning, Cleat Boyd took off for the Deschutes for a few days fishing. The scenery was beautiful but there were no fish.

A card from the Lofgrens from Las Vegas saying they were on their way home. They had driven over from the Grand Canyon.

House guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buirgy last week were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oldecker of Aberdeen, Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, of Portland.

L. K. Bartley was injured last week. A log rolled on his leg tearing all the muscles and ligaments loose around his knee.

George Olson, who has not been well for some time, suffered a stroke Thursday.

Mrs. Gaulke's sister and husband were here from Kellogg Idaho, and spent a few days this week with the Gaulkes.

Newlyweds Visit
Mrs. L. K. Bartley was greatly disappointed and then pleasantly surprised last week after she had made all arrangements to leave for Unalaska, Washington to be bridesmaid at her brother's wedding. Unavoidable circumstances prevented her leaving but early the day after the ceremony the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gear, arrived at the Bartleys where they visited for a few days. Young Jimmy Bartley returned with his uncle and new aunt to Unalaska where he will visit with his grandmother until school opens.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Calhoun have sold their home on the highway at Wemme and expect to move to their ranch a few miles from Sandy. The Ben Lynches have purchased the Calhoun residence.

Saturday, Mrs. George Bistorous, Jr., was taken suddenly ill and is now in Emanuel hospital in Portland.

Uncle Sam, New Jobs Cause Exodus From Brightwood

BRIGHTWOOD—Folks in the area are sorry to learn Walter Blaisdell, Jr., has been called by Uncle Sam. He will leave for Fort Ord, California, September 10.

The Misses Joyce Ann and Jean Ann Worthley, twin granddaughters of Mrs. Bee Anderson, are spending a week with their grandmother.

Mrs. Dewey Alt who was ill with summer flu last week is again answering the phone and taking care of the office at Alt's Lumber yard.

Mrs. J. Richmond is in McMinnville for a few days to make ready for the coming school year, where she will teach S.D.A. parochial school for 1950-1951.

Mr. and Mrs. Birkemeyer and children have moved from their Brightwood home. They are located in northeast Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Ellis and Alex Hagberg have made arrangements to leave at an early date for Waldport, Oregon, where the Ellises have purchased a home. Fishing will be their recreation there, says Don.

In a chat with Mr. Hoaglum we learn Mrs. Hoaglum will return to her home from the Oregon City hospital the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Payne and daughters, Sue and Carla, have motored to Winslow, Arizona, for a visit with relatives and friends there.

Eleven men were ordained to the Gospel ministry during closing day ceremonies of the Seventh-Day Adventist camp meeting held last month in Gladstone, when 12,000 members gathered there. Pastor Roland Kegley, Jr., of the Sandy Seventh-Day Adventist church appears third from right.

Aims Ladies Aid Stricken Family; Holidays Continue

AIMS—Mr. and Mrs. Dick Saylor and family are moving into the McCoy home after losing all their possessions by fire last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie McCoy have moved into Portland where

Mr. McCoy is employed as a truck driver.

The Ladies Club met Thursday evening and decided to buy sheets, blankets and pillows for the Saylor family to help replace a part of their loss by fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kizer and son, Billie, have moved to Sweet Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sepich have gone to Montana on their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haggs-trom went into Portland one day last week to see their first granddaughter, Mary Kathryn Stewart, born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stewart. The baby is in an incubator for three weeks.
