Loud Speaker System Given By Hi Seniors

The senior class of 1950 and previous senior classes and the Student Athletic Field fund have provided the money necessary to install a loud speaker in the grand stand.

The speaker was installed Thursday, September 14, 1950. It has a two cone speaker, with a phonograph top.

Mr. Teters, Public Speaking Class is going to do the announcing. Wayne Fredrickson is in charge of announcing the game Friday night.

The election of their advisor was postponed until the next meeting.

The juniors elected Bill Fredrickson, president; Jack Hashagan, vice president; Georgia Brown, secretary; Dolores Krettinger, treasurer; and Mr. Erland Anderson, advisor.

The seniors elected Leo Weisdorfer, president; Clifford Ehlers vice president; Dolores Senff, secretary; Dolores Mills, treasurer; and "Pop" Rannow, advisor.

Seven Girls From Student Body Are On Office Staff

Seven girls: Cathy Miller, Barbara Page, Faydean Snethen, Sharon Sleeper, Margie Johnson, Shirley Winbinger, and Patty Carlson compose the office staff which will help Dyanm Kahny, office secretary, for the 1950 and '51 school year.

Miss Kahny says, "I have a fine staff of office girls."

The staff which consists of five seniors and two sophomores was chosen by Miss Kahny and Principal, Mr. Croston.

Typing, collecting absent slips and other various jobs are done by the girls during the one hour period.

One-half credit is given to each girl for her office work.

Holiday For SUHS Students Sept. 25-26

There will be no school next Monday and Tuesday, September 25 and 26, while the first meeting of the semi-annual teachers institute is being held at Oregon City.

Teachers from three counties: Clackamas, Yamhill, and Multnomah, outside of Portland, will participate in this program.

The teachers will listen to well-known educators in the morning, and in the afternoon will break up into groups, according to their interests, and have group discussion.

Sandy High Students Are Picked For Librarians

By Margie Johnson

The 1950 and '51 school term librarians have been chosen by study hall teacher, Mrs. Berenice Avrit.

Students wishing to work in the library signed up last year during registration. Mrs. Avrit chose 15 of the registered students.

At the beginning of the year it was requested by Mrs. Avrit that she would have a girl to help her in the morning from 8:30 till time for first period class. Sophomore, Betty Jo Hellman was selected for that position.

First period girls are Patsy Gehrts, Ila Slaughter; second period Gladys Updegrave, Barbara Gannan; third period Carol Layng, Betty Hurst; fourth period Donna Deming, Dellina Hollenbeck; fifth period Dolores Mills, Beverly Knox; sixth period boys are Lester Workinger, and Alfred Johnson; and seventh period girls are Kay Wohlferd and Georgia Williams.

One-half credit is received for library work. Various jobs, such as checking in and out magazines and books, collecting for book fines, selling school supplies and stamping property of the High school, are done by the librarians.

Parkrose Digs 13 Out Of Stubborn Sandy Grid Team

The Sandy Pioneers were twotimed by a smooth Parkrose eleven, 13-0 on the Pioneer home tramping grounds Friday, September 15.

Sandy seemed capable to stop the Bronchoes battering offensive in the opening moments of play as they surrendered 7 points to Parkrose.

In the closing moments of the first half the Pioneers seemed to come alive and drove the ball deep into Parkrose territory.

In the second half the Bronchoes again slipped by our ends to score. (For analysis of the game, see "Sports Bits.")

Estacada At Sandy Field Friday Night

The Sandy Pioneers will lock horns with Estacada Rangers this Friday night on Sandy's home battlefield.

This promises to be the proving point for the newly baptized veterans of Sandy's eleven. Estacada had an A-1 team last year. The Rangers luck has not been too bad as far as players go but they did lose their star ramrod in the back field, Randall, who brought home the bacon for Estacada last year.

Coach "Pop" Rannow says they have a tough back field and a good line. We hope there will be a good turnout as this is the season's first league game.

Drum Majorettes Picked For SUHS Marching Band

Mr. Elgin Burns interviewed a group of girls Monday noon, September 11, 1950, who were interested in being band majorettes. The four girls he selected are Lotus Darnell, Lillian Newell, Georgia Brown, and Donna Wertman.

Because this is the first time Sandy High School has officially had any band majorettes for over six years, the girls will not be seen in action until their new uniforms are purchased, which will be approximately a month from now.

'D'Ya Swear To Tell The Truth, The Whole Truth, And Nothin' But ...

By Mary Anderson

"Look at that freshmans hardened countenance; you can easily believe he refused to shine his superiors shoes," stated Conrad Hassel, prosecuting attorney.

"I object!" said Gary Coats, defense attorney.

"Objection overruled," maintained His Honor, George Dunbar.

"I now turn the case over to the jury," said Conrad Hassel. "We find the defendant guilty," was the "impartial" opinion of the jury, as stated by jury foreman, Leo Wiesdorfer, after removing his lollipop.

To blow a balloon filled with water until it burst was the sentence handed down by George Dunbar, to the delight of the audience and horror of the lowly frosh.

This, and similar penalties, were meted out to freshman offenders in the courtroom (auditorium) of Sandy High School, Friday, September 15 at 3 p.m., to climax the initiation of the freshman.
