Couple Home
In Wemme
After Rites

At a double ring ceremony in the Willamette Methodist community church, Sunday, September 17, on the silver wedding anniversary of her parents, Miss Maralyn Louise DeBok, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. DeBok, Willamette, was married to Dean Robert Bartholomew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bartholomew of Cherryville. The Reverend John W. Worell read the service.

Baskets of yellow and white gladioli, white chrysanthemums, palms and candelabra were used to decorate the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown of white satin styled with lace yoke, stand-up collar and short sleeves. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a headband of lace made from her mother's wedding gown. With it she wore lace mitts and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow rosebuds and white bouvardia tied with yellow satin streamers.

Mrs. Howard Saul, sister of the bride was matron of honor in a gown styled like the bride's in yellow waffle-weave pique. She carried a cascade bouquet of lavender asters tied with matching ribbon and wore lavender asters in her hair. Miss Virginia Bartholomew, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore a dress of light green pique, similar to the matron of honor's, and carried a cascade bouquet.

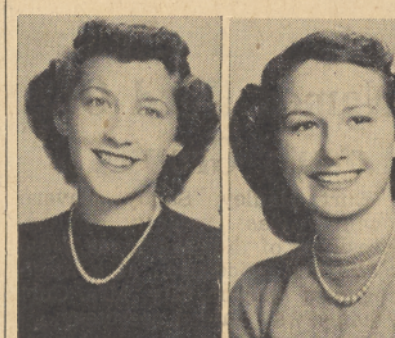

Roger Bartholomew, brother of the groom was best man. Ushers were Howard Saul, Sam Raymond and Frank Bartholomew, Jr. Randall Saul, nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

Reception Held

Mrs. W. R. Van Horn, Portland, and Miss Esther Bartholomew, Gresham, served the wedding cake at the reception. Mrs. Gordon DeBok, aunt of the bride, poured and Miss Kathryn Moore served.

After a wedding trip to Reno, Nevada and San Francisco, the couple are at home in Wemme.

The bride was graduated from West Linn high school and attended Oregon State college two years. The bridegroom was graduated from Salem high school and was at Oregon State for two years. He is employed with the Brightwood Lumber and Logging company at Cherryville.
