Betty Klinski Wed In Saturday
Eve Rites At Bethel Baptist

Bethel Baptist church was the scene Saturday night, October 7, of the wedding of Miss Betty Jean Klinski and A. Houston Keck. The Reverend John F. Schierling officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Klinski, Boring, and Mr. Keck, Richland, Washington, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Keck, Nyssa.

Background for the wedding was white chrysanthemums with greenery.

The bride wore a white satin dress with fingertip veil. She carried a gardenia bouquet and was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor, Mrs. William Barlow, Portland, was gown in aqua tulle. She wore an aqua tulle headpiece and carried pink chrysanthemums. Mrs. Elsie Robertson, sister of the groom, and Miss Jacqueline Klinski, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids, dressed in rose satin. They carried bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

Best man was Dennis Keck, Richland, Washington, brother of the groom. Ushers were Robert Morgan, Daniel Morgan, James Morgan and William Barlow.

Allene Morgan, cousin of the bride, sang. Mrs. A. K. Bishop was organist.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the church. Mrs. Paul Klinski was in charge of the punch bowl and Mrs. Bert Rupp poured coffee. Both are aunts of the bride. Mrs. Robert Morgan, another aunt, cut the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Howard Schopper, cousin of the bride. Mrs. Harold Lundy cut the sheet cake.

The bride's going away outfit was a forest green wool suit with brown accessories. She wore a corsage of talisman roses. After a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches, the couple is at home in Pasco, Washington.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Keck attended Oregon State college where he was an engineering student and she studied home economics. Mrs. Keck is now employed at the atomic plant at Richland.

Local Girl Pledged
To OSC Sorority

Miss Marilyn Mollner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephan Mollner, Box 185, Sandy, was pledged to Upsilon chapter of Sigma Kappa, national social sorority, at Oregon State college, October 1. Miss Mollner is a sophomore in the school of lower division.

Pledging services at the chapter house for a class of 33 pledges was followed by an informal tea in honor of the new pledges. Sigma Kappa, one of 16 sororities on the Oregon State campus, was founded at Colby College, Waterville, Maine, in 1874.

Bride-Elect Is
Feted By Theta
Rho Of Boring

A bridal shower honoring Miss Janet Lyons was given by the Theta Rho Girls, Boring, after the club's regular meeting, Wednesday, October 11. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Caroline Gregson, Mrs. Erna Naas, Mrs. Albert Valberg, Mrs. Jessie Gerber and Miss Marjorie Gregson.

Twenty guests were present. Gifts were sent by three women unable to attend.

Miss Lyons will be married October 21 to David Huskey of Portland.

Methodist Men
Sing On Monday

Elgin Burns, music director of the Friendly Corner Methodist church, was program director for "An Evening of Music" presented Sunday evening October 15 at the church. The men's chorus of the church Brotherhood were featured in gospel songs.

Instrumental numbers were furnished by Paul Parkhurst, cellist, with Mrs. Marvin Dixon, accompanist and George Hale, accordionist. Vern Wasson, president of the Brotherhood, spoke briefly, as did Harvey H. Watkins, past president, and Mrs. Walter Metzler, executive secretary of the men's chorus.

BPW Week
Cites Worth of Local Group

As part of their community service projects, the Sandy Business and Professional Women voted to present six sheets to the Sandy ambulance at their recent business meeting, Wednesday, October 11. Two new members were voted in at the meeting, Mrs. Edwin Anderson and Mrs. Harold Gunderson.

The club donated $5 to the Community Chest. An invitation was received from the Park Rose BPW to attend an October 17 dinner at which Multnomah county Sheriff Terry Schunk and local civil defense unit chairmen would be main speakers.

Climaxing Business and Professional Women's week, October 15-21, the local club will attend a formal dinner meeting at the Congress hotel, Portland, on Thursday, October 19. Mrs. Mildred Wharton, public relations officer for Lewis and Clark College, will speak on the subject "Measure Up."

The next meeting of the club will be held Wednesday, October 25, at the Fireside, at 7:30 p. m. when the Gresham club will be guests. A speaker, as yet unannounced, will talk on ballot title "Increasing Basic School Support Fund by Annual Tax Levy," the so-called "Children's Bill" which will appear on the November 7 ballot.

Turkey Feast
Slated Oct. 21

A bazaar and card party will follow the old-fashioned turkey dinner sponsored by the Home Economics club of the Sandy Grange on Saturday evening, October 21, at the Sandy Grange hall in Kelso. Dinner will begin at 5:30 and guests may wander about the bazaar from after dinner until 8 p. m. when the card party begins.

A vegetable booth, featuring products grown in family gardens this summer, will be one of the bazaar's attractions. Mrs. W. R. Beehler is general chairman for the dinner and bazaar. The public has been invited.

At their Tuesday, October 10 meeting, the Home Economics Club put the finishing touches on the dinner plans and voted to buy more dishes for the Sandy Grange for just such affairs. Fifteen women were present at the meeting held at the home of Mrs. J. A. McReynolds.

Rebekahs, IOOF
Honor Oureckys;
Party Is Planned

A Halloween party is planned for October 26 by the Sandy Rebekah lodge, it was revealed at the lodge meeting, Thursday, October 12. Estacada, Boring and Gresham lodges and the Sandy Odd Fellows will be invited.

Hostesses at the Thursday meeting were Mrs. Otto Motjl, Mrs. Theodore Hergert and Mrs. Alta Van Ausdell.

A farewell party for the Otto Ourecky's, who leave soon for Idaho, was held Monday evening, October 16, by the Rebekahs and Oddfellows after the regular IOOF meeting. Mrs. Sadie Bosholt, Noble Grand of the Rebekahs and Ab McLean, Noble Grand of the Oddfellows, presented the Ourecky's with a table lamp.

Mrs. Ruth Leum played several piano numbers as well as singing "In The Garden" accompanied by Mrs. George Strope. The Rebekahs served ice cream and cake.
