SOCIETY AND CLUB ACTIVITIES

Miss Rita Hashagen Becomes Bride Of Edward C. Schmitz

Miss Rita Hashagen, daughter of Mrs. Noel Churchill of Portland, became the bride of Edward C. Schmitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schmitz of Sandy, at a nuptial mass at St. Michael's Catholic church in Sandy on Saturday, December 2nd, at 10 a.m.

The Rev. William J. Delplanche read the single ring service before the altar decorated with white and bronze chrysanthemums. Mrs. Frank Schmitz played the wedding march.

The bride wore a gown of white rayon net over white taffeta that was of ballerina length. Her Juliet sequin cap held the fingertip veil and she carried a white orchid corsage.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. Arthur Smith, who wore a gown of gold taffeta, a gold Juliet sequin cap, and a corsage of yellow rose buds.

Wallace Scales of Sandy was best man. Alfred Schmitz was candlelighter.

A reception was held at the home of the bridegroom. Mrs. Thomas Scales poured and Mrs. Ivan Barker cut the wedding cake. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Noel Churchill of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Clinefelter of Oswego, and Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas Shaw and family of Fairview.

For her going-away, Mrs. Schmitz wore a brown and white checkered suit with brown accessories, and a white orchid.

Both young people are graduates of Sandy high school. The bride graduated in 1948 and is presently employed with the Beeson Chevrolet company as a bookkeeper. The bridegroom graduated in 1942, and following his discharge from the navy in 1946 has worked for the Bittner Plug company in Sandy.

The couple is residing at their new home on Bluff road.

Valentine-Bristlin Rites Are Held At Chapel Of The Hills

At a candlelight service in the Chapel of the Hills on the Mount Hood Loop highway near Cherryville, recently, Miss June Elaine Bristlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bristlin, Logan, became the bride of Kenneth Ray Valentine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Valentine, Eagle Creek.

Rev. Niles Southwick officiated at the ceremony which was held before an altar decorated with white chrysanthemums. White streamers were along the aisles and philodendron and ivy trailed from the candleabra along the aisle.

Donald Johnson sang, "The Lord's Prayer," and "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Niles Southwick sang "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Willard Bristlin was the pianist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with net and lace bodice. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a halo of lilies of the valley and seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations centered with purple orchids.

Miss Pauline Bristlin, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of pastel green taffeta with matching halo hat and carried a nosegay of fall flowers.

Mrs. Paul Marsh and Mrs. Kenneth Eaden, both sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids and wore pink taffeta gowns with matching halo hats.

The Misses Marilyn and Marcene Eaden were junior bridesmaids and wore yellow taffeta gowns with matching halo hats. All the bridesmaids carried nosegays of fall flowers.

Kenneth Eaden was best man. Willard Bristlin, Donald Jackson, Ronald and James Marsh served as the ushers.

Andrea Bristlin, in a green taffeta gown, was the flower girl. Billy Marsh was the ring bearer. Candle lighters were Reva Jo Hughes and Frances Mullins.

Reception Held

The reception was held in the church parlors following the wedding.

Mrs. George Elliott, Beaver Creek, served the wedding cake while Mrs. J. L. Wakefield, Salem, and Mrs. R. L. Kullander, Independence, poured. Mrs. Frank Whitehead and Mrs. Lee Miller assisted with the serving.

Miss Virginia Valentine was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Carl Swanson, Portland, and Mrs. Ray Liptrap, Los Angeles, Calif., both sisters of the groom, attended at the gift table.

The bride chose a steel blue tailored suit and wore an orchid corsage for a wedding trip to California. The Valentines will make their home in Vernonia after a brief honeymoon.

Mrs. Valentine is teaching in Vernonia.

Ceremony Unites Couple In Vancouver Rites December 10

A double ring ceremony at Vancouver, Wash., united Miss Marjorie Jean Gregson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gregson, of Boring, and Robert A. Brown, of Dayville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown, of Tygh Valley.

The wedding was performed by the Rev. C. W. Cutler on December 10th at 2 p.m.

The bride was attired in a navy blue suit with gray accessories and a corsage of yellow rose buds. She was attended by Mrs. David Huskey who wore a navy blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Howard Kinzey of Wamic was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents in Boring following the ceremony. Mrs. George Hoar was in charge of the wedding cake and Mrs. C. L. Gregson was in charge of the guest book.

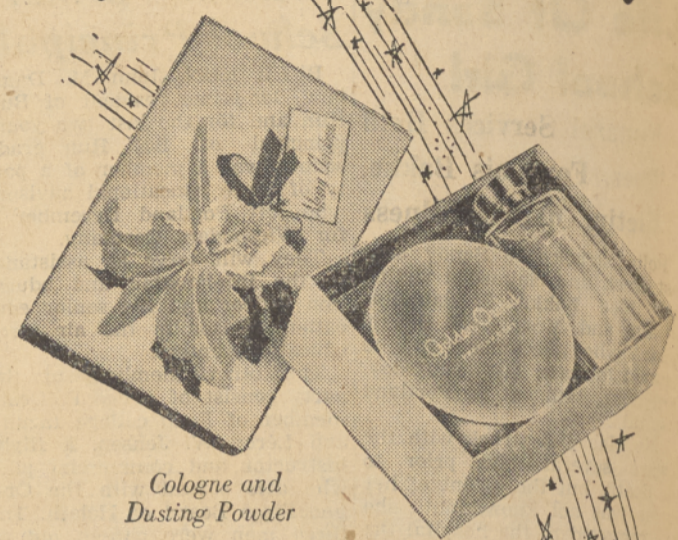

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Kinzey of Tygh Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mayer and daughter, Mary, and Mrs. Mary Mayer, all of Portland.

The bride attended Boring grade school and Sandy high school and formerly was employed at the Clackamas county bank. The bridegroom attended Tygh Valley grade school, and Dufur and Prineville high schools. He entered the service in 1945 and was attached to the paratroopers and military police.

The couple will make their home at Dayville, Oregon.

INTRODUCING

THOMAS W. ALLEN

Public Accountant

I have recently purchased the accounting firm owned by Robert A. Kinney, who is leaving Sandy to again enter the military service, and will occupy offices in the Walrad building in Sandy.

I hope to help many of you with those troublesome tax, bookkeeping and accounting problems.

If you do not think your present accounting methods are doing the job, let us help you simplify and streamline its operation.

Sincerely,
Thomas W. Allen
