Molalla Wins WVL Jamboree Trophy; Pioneers Take 2nd

Molalla's Indians, host to the annual Willamette Valley league basketball jamboree last Friday evening, made an appropriate dedication of the new school gymnasium before a packed house of league followers by walking off with scoring honors and a leg of the revolving trophy with a 37-20 victory over Canby.

The Sandy Pioneers took runnerup honors with a comfortable 32-23 decision over the Dallas Dragons, while Woodburn tripped Silverton 19-14, and Estacada defeated Mount Angel 22-12.

Individual high scoring honors for the evening went to Estacada's smooth performer, Bob Reed, who tossed in 12 points. Pacing the Sandy attack were Wayne Frederickson and Raynold Lekberg with 9 points apiece. Sandy (32) Dallas (23) Dallas W. THE CHRISTMAS TREE IS NOT AN OLD ENGLISH CUSTOM!

It's an Old American Custom to Own and Drive A Car!

But that involves the responsibility of seeing to it That the car is kept properly repaired . . .

Let SWAN Do It!

The Christmas Tree Is Not An Old English Custom!

Christmas trees originated in Germany and were introduced into England as recently as the middle of the 19th century. 1—Dean Inge, in The Evening Standard, Dec. 1921. 2—Walsh, Curiosities of Popular Customs.
