Oven Meals Studied By Extension Unit At December Meet

BRIGHTWOOD—Oven meals were demonstrated at the Brightwood extension unit December 14th by Mrs. Nell Howe. An oven meal was served for lunch by Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Jim Langdon and Mrs. Bernice Lasher.

There were 16 ladies present and 7 children. Gifts were exchanged following the business meeting. Mrs. Green reported on unit standards and Mrs. Mitchell reported on extra rewards given to 4-H workers.

Mrs. Nelson is assisting Mrs. Lloyd Jenkins with her cooking group.

The executive meeting of the unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Dorothy Meyer Friday afternoon, January 5th.

Dorcas Society Installs Officers

The Dorcas society of the Seventh-Day Adventist church combined a Christmas party with installation of officers for the 1951 year on December 21st.

Mrs. Hazel Johnston was installed as president, Mrs. E. W. Courser, Cherryville, vice president, and Mrs. Martina Bakke, secretary-treasurer.

A gift of appreciation was presented to Mrs. Ida Meeker, the out-going president.

Following the installation a potluck dinner was served and gifts were exchanged. There were 20 members in attendance.

Party Held By Woman's Club

The Sandy Woman's club held its annual Christmas program, directed by Alma Francis Fields, on Thursday, December 7 at the Woman's Club hall.

Rev. Thyra Funk of the Chapel of The Hills gave the Christmas story. Sandy Ridge school children sang Christmas carols directed by Mrs. Ruth Mitchell and Mrs. Alice Willis. Clyde Cansler was soloist of the group.

The contribution box for children's welfare netted over $10. A Christmas tree and tea table carried out the Christmas motif.

Hostesses were Mrs. Richard Wesselink and Mrs. Walter Wesselink.

At the business session Mrs. R. S. Bunnell was elected president to replace Mrs. F. M. Forman, who recently moved to Antelope, Oregon. Mrs. Thomas Scales was elected vice president.

Trail Riders Christmas Party At Club

A Christmas party was enjoyed by members of the Oregon Trail Riders of Sandy who met last week at the Sportsmen's Gun club meeting house, according to Renee Solso, publicity chairman.

John Mills portrayed Santa Claus during the exchange of gifts. Games and dancing were the entertaining features of the evening. Refreshments also were served later in the evening.

The Riders received $150, in addition to several ribbons, for the club's participation in the Clackamas county fair at Canby last August.

Lois Farmer was in charge of entertainment for the party and was assisted by the other ladies of the club.
