Ceremony For Swails-Wilcox Held Under Arch Of Roses

The bride's only attendant was Miss Arlene Seematter, maid of honor, who wore pale blue organdy and white. The mother of the bride wore a white crepe gown with black print and white accessories and Mrs. C. C. Wil-tion. Louise Noehren took pictures for release to the paper.

wedding and was also held on the lawn, with Mrs. Harold Headley, the bride's aunt, of Tacoma, serving the three layer wedding cake decorated with white love birds; Mrs. A. V. Swails poured coffee and Mrs. Jerry Swails

and old shoes that were present for the purpose of showering the couple) on a short wedding trip until June 25th when the groom left for San Diego Naval station where he is attending storekeeper's school for three months. The bride will remain in Sandy with her parents during that time.
